FIND NO WILL IN HUGE NEW CASTLE ESTATE

TO DEFY MUSSOLINI

Estate Of Mary Taylor Will Run Around $400,000

Appraisers Find Roll Of Bills Containing $2,200 Between Bed Ticks

MRS. LAURA LINTON SOLE BENEFICIARY

Letters Are Being Issued To Mrs. Linton And Mrs. Laura McCready

An estate now estimated at around $400,000 was left by the late Miss Mary Taylor, who died recently at her home on Cunningham avenue in the fourth ward. As no will has been found, Mrs. Laura Linton, a first cousin, is the sole beneficiary.

When Miss Taylor died, Mrs. Linton, who is the widow of the late James C. Linton, had gone to California to spend the winter. She came back at once when notified of Miss Taylor's death. She and Mrs. Laura McCready, a second cousin of Miss Taylor, are taking out letters of administration on the estate.

When application for letters was made to Register and Recorder William R. Hanna, the estate was estimated at around $230,000, and application for a bond of over $300,000 was made. Since then assets have been discovered whcih will run the estate up around $400,000 and an additional bond will have to be taken out. The bond will be around $700,000, one of the largest ever taken out here.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Probably it has been many months since an auto accident attracted as large a crowd as that which occurred on East Washington street, near Warren avenue, Thursday afternoon. The accident occurred just as the football game at Taggart stadium had been concluded, and when several police cars and ambulances went speeding up East Washington street with sirens screaming, a large number of the spectators from the football game joined in a procession to the scene of the accident.

New Castle experienced the first real snow of the season this morning. Rain on Thursday morning, which threatened to mar Thanksgiving day, ceased, and during the afternoon, good weather conditions existed, quite balmy. Last night the temperature dropped some, and snow started falling early this morning. Weather conditions however were not such that the snow interferred with traffic, as the snow melted about as soon as it struck the highways.

Huge piles of ashes are located along the highways of Lawrence County at hills ready for use in case of necessity, due to icy conditions of the roads, this winter.

Someone broke the kitchen door at 14½ South Apple Way, according to a report made to police.

Patrolman George Wyman is off duty on account of a leg ailment and Detective Thomas Lynch is also off duty owing to illness.

In spite of previous warnings, thieves are still stealing red lanterns from the works projects in Union Township, Chief Engineer H. L. Stewart of the WPA stated today. Detectives are being put on the job and if the thieves are apprehended they will be dealt with severely.

Haile Selassie On Way To War Zone

(Copyright, 1935, By International News Service)

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 29.—Coincident with the arrival of a new commander, Marshal Pietro Badoglio, to lead a new Italian push on the northern front, Emperor Haile Selassie was on his way to the war zone to direct in person for the first time the Ethiopian defensive stand.

The Emperor left yesterday morning for Dessye, north of here, by motor car, accompanied by his minister of finance and minister of the interior.

A huge procession of 100 cars and trucks, carrying the emperor's camping equipment and escort, and indicating that he plans a long stay, followed over the rough road.

The empress, the Duke of Harar, and Princess Tsahai went along for 100 miles of the journey and then turned back to the capital.

Haile Selassie planned to fly to Dessye, a trip that can be made in a few hours in contrast to the three days of hardship on the road, but his advisers convinced him that it was less risky for him to go by car.

They reminded the emperor of his previous flight to a front, that time to the south-east, when Italian pursuit planes scoured the desert looking for him. The emperor's airplanes are old, except for one he recently bought from a French journalist, and all can easily be oustripped by the Italian fighters.

Christmas Lighting Will Start Saturday

All the glamour and cheer of the Christmas season will burst forth on Saturday evening, when the Christmas lighting system in the downtown business section, which is provided each year by the merchants, will be turned on.

Hundreds of Christmas trees, covered with multi-colored lights, are being put in place today and will be ready for the current to be turned on Saturday evening for the first time.

The idea is being carried out along the same lines as last year, the trees being placed in barrels, which will lift the base of the tree several feet above the sidewalk. The barrels this year have been newly painted with green paint, where they were red last year, and will make a handsome decoration for the business district.

Is Usual Custom

In addition to the lights being placed in front of the stores which have subscribed to the idea, they will also be placed about the park on the Diamond.

Each year, the progressive mined business men of New Castle have decorated the downtown section of the city during the Christmas season. The cost of this Christmas lighting to them has been enormous amounting to hundreds of dollars, but the expense has been cheerfully borne by them, as they rejoice in being able to beautify their city at this particular season.

The decorations are artistically arranged and planned so that a lighted tree, and in some cases, several, is displayed in front of the business house of each sponsor of this civic enterprise. The residents of the community benefit by the beauty of the lighting and can feel proud of the public spirited men back of this movement. Those contributing to the effort feel sure the residents of the city will show their appreciation of the time and money which has been expended.

Those who have contributed to the effort this year are the following:

State Will Ask Death Penalty For Two Boys

Illinois Prosecutor Will Ask Jury To Send Slayers To Chair

(International News Service)

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Nov. 29.—"It is my intention to ask the supreme penalty," State's Attorney Lester Geers declared today, as he prepared to prosecute two 15-year-old Edwardsville boys for the murder of John C. Higgins, Madison county deputy treasurer.

The youths who face death in the electric chair are Everett Rambo and James Jarrett, a high school freshman.

Geers said the youths had confessed their parts in the slaying, and had also confessed beating Higgins' seven-year-old daughter, Margie.

Higgins was awakened early Tuesday morning by the screams of his daughter. Rushing into her bedroom, he was confronted by a prowler, was shot through the heart in a scuffle.

Geers said that Rambo fired the fatal shot, that Jarrett entered the house with his pal but retreated when Margie screamed.

REPORT PLANES DESTROY TOWN

(International News Service)

ADDIS ABABA, Nov. 29—Regarded as an act of revenge for "recent defeats", Italian airplanes yesterday destroyed the town of Daggah Bur, in the southeastern part of the country, it was officially reported today, and many women and children were allegedly killed.

Ten airplanes dropped a hail of 1500 bombs on the town, according to Ethiopian reports.

Most of the bombs were incendiary, and the whole town was set ablaze.

News of the bombing caused a huge sensation in Addis Ababa.

Youth Is Shot By His Mother

Jesse Livermore, Jr., 16, Of Santa Barbara, Cal., Badly Wounded

BOTH INTOXICATED OFFICER REPORTS

(International News Service)

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Nov. 29.—Jesse Livermore, Jr., 16 son of the famous stock market operator of New York, was shot and seriously wounded early today by his mother in their fashionable Montecito home.

According to Undersheriff Jack Lawrence who investigated the shooting, both mother and son were intoxicated.

The mother, he was told by D. Nevelle, a house guest, had upbraided her son for drinking.

"I would rather see you dead then drinking the way you are." Nevelle in his statement to Lawrence quoted the mother as telling her son.

Go Ahead and Shoot

The boy went to his room and returned with his .22 calibre revolver, Nevelle told the undersheriff.

He lay down on the floor and told his mother, according to this report: "Go ahead and shoot."

Nevelle told the officer he believed the boy was only trying to frighten his mother and he went to the bathroom.

While there he heard a shot ring out and running back found the boy shot through the chest and the mother hysterical with grief.

Dr. Nevelle Ussher, prominent surgeon, was summoned and he in turn called the sheriff's office.

The bullet, according to physicians, was deflected by a rib and pierced the boy's liver after entering the chest.

He was rushed to Cottage hospital where it was said his condition was serious.

Mother In Hospital

The mother was also taken to the hospital under guard. The sheriff's office said she was under technical arrest but that no charge has been placed. The district attorney's of-

Insists Federal Direct Relief To End Saturday

Hopkins Asserts Federal Dole To Be Completed As Of December 1

WORKS PROGRAM FAR FROM SUCCESS

Some Observers Believe Some Measure Of Direct Relief Must Be Continued

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Federal direct relief, which has cost $2,975,932,284 since May, 1933, is scheduled to end tomorrow—at least until congress meets in January.

Harry L. Hopkins, who has directed the allotments to states of this vast sum as FERA administrator, insists that direct federal relief will end as of Dec. 1.

But the $4,000,000,000 work relief program, launched last April when congress passed the record peacetime appropriation, has failed, as far as the latest figures available show, to provide jobs for all of the 3,500,000 employable heads of families on the relief rolls.

Program Far Short.

The program was 1,132,758 jobs shy of the goal or Nov. 15, when the last employment figures were announced by WPA.

The latest relief allotments for November did not include federal allowances to all states for the entire month. While 26 states have received their last allotments, FERA officials admitted that some further allotments would be made to some of the states to "wind up" their re-

HUGE BUCK DEER ON KANE RAMPAGE

Jumps Through Plate Glass Window And Chases Two Men

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Nov. 29.—A huge buck deer, enraged by cuts it received in jumping through a plate glass window to enter the West Penn Power company store here, threw the business section of the city into turmoil today until it finally made its way to freedom after pursuing two men.

Ben Lewis, 38, a power company salesman, was chased a half hour by the buck before he managed to reach a telephone and call for help. The buck scented Lewis when the salesman entered the basement.

The animal charged and Lewis, who stands six feet four and weighs 240 pounds dodged behind packing cases until he was able to make his way up the stairs and telephone for help.

James Collinge, another power company employe, hurried to Lewis' aid, but he was also chased by the buck.

Townspeople gathered outside to watch the battle which lasted until the deer was finally shooed out of an open door and made his way a mile through city streets to the woods.

WINS BET, BUT LOSES HIS LIFE

(International News Service)

LAUREL, Del., Nov. 29.—Norris Brewington, 21, won a Thanksgiving Day bet at the cost of his life.

For want of something better to do on the holiday, he wagered a friend that he could climb to the top of a 140-foot steel tower carrying high tension wires across the Laurel river.

As he reached the tower's top, he touched one of the wires and plunged to the ground—dead.

State To Meet Direct Relief For December

Governor Says Provision Can Be Made For Coming Month

NEW PROGRAM BEING PREPARED

Local Units Of State Must Take Up Part Of Burden In January

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 29.— With only one day remaining before the threatening withdrawal of federal aid, state and local officials today awaited results of a survey being completed to outline the state's relief needs after January 1.

Direct relief for December, Gov. George H. Earle announced, has been "taken care of", but the program after that time, the governor said, will hinge largely upon the information brought out in the survey, to be announced next Wednesday.

At that time counties throughout the state will be informed what share of the relief burden they must carry after the flow of federal relief money ceases December 1. The program is being announced early so that municipalities may provide for relief needs in setting up budgets for the coming year.

Hope For Federal Aid

With a companion, Byron Black, young Barnes was enroute by plane to a football game yesterday. Over a wooded patch near here, he was shot near the heart by a marksman with a highpowered rifle.

Black rushed the shooting victim to a hospital here where physicians said he probably would recover.

League Committee Favors Extension Of Sanctions' Scope

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

GENEVA, Nov. 29.—The league of nations "general staff" of 18 nations directing application of sanctions against Italy today was called to meet December 12 to discuss the all-important oil embargo against Rome.

GENEVA, Nov. 29—Every member of the committee of 18 countries, named by the League of Nations to direct the enforcement of sanctions against Italy, is in favor of extending coercion to include an embargo on oil and copper, International News Service learned today.

This means that in all probability this measure, without which Italy cannot long carry on her war in Ethiopia and which Italian sources threaten may stir a European conflict, will be taken by mid-December.

Even France, whose Premier, Pierre Laval, was the pre-war parent of Italian-French collaboration, favors the oil ban, but does not want the committee of 18 to meet until December 16.

Britain is urging that the session be held December 9.

With the addition of Britain's mandated territory of Iraq, where the rich Mesopotamian oil fields are located, to the list of nations willing to forbid oil shipments to Italy today, and with the stand taken by Secretary Cordell Hull of the Unit-

Remembering their many blessings and desiring to express their thanks to God, hundreds of people attended union Thanksgiving services in various churches of the city and county Wednesday evening and Thursday morning.

FOUR INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Accident Occurs On East Washington Street On Thursday Afternoon

When the car of George H. Phillips, East Reynolds street, struck a parked auto of J. K. Louden, at East Washington street near Warren avenue, about four p. m. Thursday, Phillips and three other occupants of his car were hurt. Phillips was taken to the New Castle hospital for treatment. He received lacerations of the head.

Harry Brush, Clarence Collins and Earl Farrar, who were riding with him also were hurt. They were treated by a physician at the latter's office. The most seriously injured was Earl Farrar who received a severe laceration of his ear.

The auto driven by Phillips overturned after hitting the machine owned by Louden. Both cars were wrecked considerably.

Phillips was arrested on a charge of suspicion and will be charged with driving while drunk according to Police Chief John F. Haven. The other occupants of the car were charged with drunkenness. In police court today Mayor Mayne discharged them saying their injuries were sufficient punishment.

OTHER TRAINMEN ESCAPE INJURIES

(International News Service)

BLAIRSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 29.—One man was killed and three others escaped by leaping today when a gas-electric car of the Pennsylvania railroad jumped the tracks and burst into flames a mile south of here.

O. M. Wilson, 54, of Blairsville, the baggageman, was killed when he leaped from the coach, which operates between Torrance and Indiana.

The others, Ralph Forrester, conductor, Thomas B. Miller, engineman, and Paul Bennett, a freight brakeman riding as a "dead-head" passenger, escaped.

Flames burst from the car as it careened off the rails. No passengers were on the 70-foot coach because its first passenger stop was not to be made until it reached Blairsville. Mail and express on the train was believed to have been destroyed.

Great Britain Will Demand New Embargoes

Mussolini' War Threats Will Not Affect Policy Of Great Britain

OIL EMBARGO IS BIGGEST ISSUE

League Committee To Meet In December To Act On Proposed Embargoes

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 29—Great Britain will defy Premier Mussolini's threat of a European war and will strongly urge the League of Nations to ban shipments, not only of oil, but of other materials Il Duce needs to carry on his war against Ethiopia.

This was learned on the highest authority by International News Service today as all Europe apparently was on the verge of war over the issue of whether there shall be a halt in the flow of oil needed to run Italian tanks and airplanes in East Africa.

Creates Grave Crisis

Rome's open threats, particularly to Britain and France, against banning oil shipments to Italy have created the gravest European crisis since outbreak of the Italo-Ethiopian war two months ago.

However, despite gravity of the situation. Britain will remain undeterred, it was learned. Defying Italian troop movements reportedly aimed at further fortifying the Egyptian-Libyan border, a threat to Egypt, and aided greatly by the neutrality attitude of the United States, Britain will push for embargos on several other materials besides oil considered essential to the conduct of the Italian war.

When the league's "general staff" on sanctions applications meets early in December in Geneva, the British delegation will strive to have

CHINA MAKES STRONG PROTEST TO JAPANESE

(International News Service)

NANKING, Nov. 29.—Charging violation of her sovereignty, China today formally protested to Japan against recent military and political activities in the northern provinces.

Two notes were handed to Consul General Suma of Japan, the first flatly declaring that the northern autonomy movement "was engineered by disgruntled elements acting in connivance with Japanese militarists."

It asked Japan to curb the activities of her army chiefs, and stressed China's desire to settle the present difficulties through diplomatic channels, and not by force.

The second note asked for Japanese guarantees that occupation of railway stations, such as occurred Wednesday at Fengtai and Changyimen, will not occur again.

PRESIDENT GOES TO ATLANTA

To Make Address During Afternoon

Gathering Promises To Mark Opening Of Campaign For Re-election

HUGE CROWD IS DRAWN TO CITY

By GEORGE DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 29. — President Roosevelt was headed for Atlanta this morning and what promised to be his opening gesture of next year's campaign.

A large cross-section of Georgians —estimated all the way from a hundred thousand to half a million— were gathered in the capital of the Empire state of the south to pay tribute to the chief executive at a gigantic "home-coming rally".

Political interest in the Atlanta setting was heightened by the fact Governor Eugene Talmadge has been attacking the fundamental policies of the Roosevelt administration in no uncertain fashion.

Today, on the Georgia governor's home grounds, the president was to have an opportunity to answer this insurrection against the new deal if he so elects. By mid-afternoon, the nation will know what views the president may have on controversial subjects affecting the population in general. The text of the address was carefully guarded, before its delivery.

Georgia Democrats loyal to the Roosevelt administration as against the preachments of Governor Talmadge had converged on Atlanta from every section of the state. By train, plane and motor, thousands were jammed into the southern metropolis to pay the chief executive homage. "Home-coming day" was to be the big event of Mr. Roosevelt's annual return to the state for a Thanksgiving vacation at Warm Springs.

STATE TO MEET DIRECT RELIEF FOR DECEMBER

direct relief needs estimated at about $8,000,000. The $2,000,000 difference, Governor Earle said, may be forthcoming from the federal government. If it is not, the state treasury will have to provide that amount.

In revealing efforts would be made to obtain additional funds for December from the federal government, it was said there was no assurance such aid would be forthcoming. But state authorities are ready to tap the state treasury in order to complete funds for direct relief in that month should the attempt to get it from Washington fail.

Direct relief needs for the state were estimated at an "outside" figure of $10,700,000 for December, but the governor said that increasing employment by private industry and the speeding up of the Works Progress Administration program, now employing about 200,000 Pennsylvanians, would enable the state to get along with approximately $8,000,000.

Because of the gravity of the entire relief situation, however, Governor Earle has called another meeting of the state emergency relief board for December 10. By that time it is hoped the forthcoming survey will have given officials throughout the commonwealth a more complete picture of relief necessities.

ed States, every big oil producer in the world is ready to halt the flow of liquid fuel.

Russia and Rumania, hitherto the biggest suppliers of oil to Italy have already agreed to the embargo, provided the United States cooperates. Canada, Spain, Argentina, India, and Finland have also come forward voluntarily to foster the sanction.

Copper has been added to the items that the committee favors banning, because Hull included copper on his list of essential war materials.

The committee has not yet decided about coal, since the attitude of Germany, a large coal producer, is uncertain, and, besides, Italy has huge reserves of coal.

twenty visiting ministers and their wives present.

At 2:30 p. m. a song service was led by Rev. Charles Shuss, of Warren, O. Reports from every visiting group of young people, concerning the activities of their local assemblies, were heard at this time. Special musical numbers were interspersed in the program.

Rev. J. Roswell Flower, superintendent of the eastern district, Assemblies of God, spoke on the theme "The Lord Hath Need of Him." A consecration service followed.

Evening Session

At 7 p. m. the church was filled to overflowing, with an estimated number of about 800 people present. Rev. W. Buckley, of New Kensington, led the crowd in a spirited song period. A Thanksgiving praise service, in charge of Rev. Eugene Benjamin, of Mt. Union, in which everyone participated, followed.

A trumpet solo by Mrs. A. Williams, of Wampum, a vibra-harp solo by J. Conahy, of Jeannette, a duet number by Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Eyler, of Johnstown, and vocal solo by Rev. Frank Boyd, of Rochester, added to the musical part of the program.

Mrs. J. Rosell Flower delivered the sermon of the evening, a message especially adapted to the interest of young people, taken from the life of Joseph.

Joseph, Mrs. Flower said, like many other Bible characters such as Elisha, Joshua, Samuel, David, and Moses, got his start when very young. She stressed the value of early influence on youth, speaking of the necessary preparation of character, the importance of faithfulness in little responsibilities as essential preparation for meeting larger opportunities. She cited the fact that Joseph, stripped of everything, bore it victoriously before God exalted him to prime minister of Egypt, and that such has been the story of all truly great men.

Mrs. Flower will speak again tonight, telling some interesting experiences from her own life.

not only oil, coal and iron embargoed, as originally proposed by Canada, but also will urge that copper, wool, cotton, and machine tools also be denied Italy.

Seek Extra Embargoes

Enforcement of these extra embargoes would be impossible without the present neutrality attitude of the American government, according to the official British view, and the fact that Washington is discouraging shipments of these materials to both belligerents will be stressed to the utmost in the British campaign among league members.

The British Ambassodor to France Sir George Clerk, and Premier Laval discussed the plans for an oil embargo, the Italian troop movements, and the possibilities of peace, it was learned, in a meeting held to attempt to clarify the grave crisis.

The British foreign office refused either to confirm or deny that Sir George asked and received fresh assurances of French support in case of an Italian attack upon Egypt or British interests anywhere.

Military experts pointed out that the movement of Italian troops from Brenner Pass, on the Italo-Austrian frontier, might be directed to shifting them to East Africa or Libya. In this case, although they would pass the Franco-Italian frontier, as they are reported scheduled to do, they would sail from Genoa.

Threat To France

The British feel that the troop movements are a threat to France rather than Britain, but that they have had the opposite effect of that intended. Whereas, according to the British view, Il Duce wanted to frighten France into opposing sanctions, the troop movements actually have resulted in a further cementing of Anglo-French relations.

The gravity of the crisis and Britain's dependence upon the United States for support in the oil and other sanctions now contemplated was fully reflected in the British press today.

The fact that Il Duce has 1,000,000 men under arms in Italy alone and that the Italian public appears ready to make European war sacrifices if necessary was stressed. The threat to Egypt, the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan and Lake Tsana, British sphere of influence in Ethiopia, was clearly placed before the public.

Britain Cold To Threat

It was noted that Premier Mussolini had taken comparatively peacefully the previously applied sanctions, which chiefly affected the Italian public, but that the proposed embargo on oil, which would strike directly at the Italian armies in East Africa, presented an entirely different situation.

Britain, however, will remain cold to the Italian threat of "military measures." Officials pointed out the sanctions as envisioned by the League founders and as envisioned today by League members are directed chiefly at halting war, rather than penalizing a warring nation.

Italy is believed to have a six-months' oil supply, but in view of the apparently slow progress in East Africa recently and the opposition being raised in Italy to the oil ban proposal, it was concluded Il Duce does not think his present oil supply, whatever its amount, sufficient to prosecute his war to the finish.

Graham bread with finely chopped hard-cooked egg and broiled bacon, moistened with dressing, and garnished with chopped parsley, is good in sandwiches.

INSISTS FEDERAL DIRECT RELIEF TO END SATURDAY

lief grants for the month. To date, the allotments to states for the month total $51,523,642.

Approximately $50,000,000 more will be needed, high WPA officials admitted, to "wind up" obligations incurred by states for relief for the last half of November.

Allots Huge Sum.

From May, 1933, until Nov. 1 this year, Hopkins had allotted $2,924,408,642 to the states for direct relief.

As works progress administrator, Hopkins has had supervision of allocations of more than $1,200,000,000 for quick-starting jobs designed to speed the employment program and has handled the distribution of more than $4,100,000,000 since he was named administrator by President Roosevelt.

That is more than the $4,000,000,000 appropriated by congress for the work relief program for the current fiscal year, ending July 1 next, although congress added $880,000,000 to carry on direct relief until the work relief program would provide jobs.

The work relief program originally was scheduled to provide the 3,500,000 employable heads of families with jobs by Sept. 1. It failed to develop the necessary speed, and the deadline was set back to Nov. 1, then Nov. 15 and now Dec. 1.

While FERA officials insist that relief allotments to states end tomorrow, both President Roosevelt and Administrator Hopkins have stated that no one would be permitted to go hungry. As a result, observers expect that direct relief will be continued, in a measure at least, until the works program has provided the entire quota of jobs.

YOUTH IS SHOT BY HIS MOTHER

fice was notified of the circumstances of the shooting and will determine the nature of the charge to be placed.

Mrs. Livermore some years ago was divorced from Jesse Livermore. She remarried but was again divorced and resumed the name of Livermore.

The boy has been attending a swank private school here and the head master today was attempting to get in touch with his father in the east to inform him of the shooting.

of the estate is in cash. The balance is in real estate, bonds, stocks and mortgages. There is about $123,000 in certificates of deposit in a local bank. This money was left to Miss Taylor by her mother around 1916, and it is said that there is around $70,000 accumulated interest, as none of it had ever been drawn.

Attorneys Harvey E. Martin and Homer C. Drake, who have been appointed appraisers, went to the Taylor homestead, which is near the Margaret Henry Home, on Wednesday in company wtih Mrs. Linton and Mrs. McCready to make an inventory of the property.

Mr. Drake happened to lift up a mattress on one of the beds. There was a big roll of bills tied with a string, under it. When the money was counted the roll was found to contain over $2200. It was thought that other money might be secreted about the house, but a diligent search failed to disclose any more.

To Start Settlement.

Attorney Walter S. Reynolds, who is attorney for the executrices, is now arranging their bonds, and as soon as the bonds have been filed at the register and recorder's office, work of settling up the estate will be started.

It is not likely that there are any debts outside of the state and Federal inheritances taxes and the expenses of settling up the estate. It is said that the state inheritance tax will likely run around $35,000. No estimates have yet been made as to the amount of the Federal tax, but in estates as large as this one it will likely run several times the amount of the state tax.

The tax in this estate will be larger owing to the fact that the nearest relative was a cousin. It is one of the largest estates in which there has been no will, ever to pass through the local register and recorder's office.

The Taylor family was one of the pioneers of New Castle. They, with their connections, formerly owned much of the land in the section surrounding the Taylor homestead. It was partly through the sale of this land that the basis for the fortune left by Miss Taylor was started. As members of the family died Miss Taylor's wealth accumulated by inheritance.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES DRAW LARGE CROWDS

modated East Side congregations, were well filled as were those in the South Side, Mahoningtown and throughout the county.

Dr. C. B. Wingerd of Central Presbyterian church, gave the message at the downtown service. Dr. G. S. Bennett of First Christian church, read the president's Thanksgiving proclamation. Special numbers were offered by the First Presbyterian quartet, Lillian B. Stambaugh, Madeleine N. Rugh, Monas Harlan and Charles Richards. Dr. N. A. White, of the First Methodist Episcopal church, gave the benediction.

It seems foolish to have another session of Congress when the Supreme Court hasn't yet undone the work of the last one.

Relief Offices May Be Moved

Would Provide More Room For W. P. A. Officials In Building

In an effort to provide more room for the staff of the Works Progress Administration, it is possible that the district offices of the Emergency Relief Administration will be moved from the present quarters on South Mill street.

Administrator James W. Moorhead today admitted that plans were under way to move the district office if this could be approved by the state administration in Harrisburg. The area offices would not be moved. The district offices are those dealing with direct relief in Lawrence County while the area offices have charge of all direct relief in the three counties comprising area 10, Lawrence, Butler and Mercer.

With the increase in the pay rolls of the Works Progress Administration the need for room grows apace. The WPA has most of the second floor of the relief building but the workers are crowded into space that mocks the usual rule for light and air space per person.

Should the relief offices be moved it would give the WPA the entire second floor and probably part of the first floor. In the meantime it is anticipated that with the constant shrinkage of direct relief rolls, the force of the financial department of the relief, located on the third floor of the building, will be reduced and thus provide additional space for WPA.

Bollard, of Warren, O., formerly of New Castle, to John G. Lepola, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lepola, of Warren, took place before a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

Rev. S. C. Black, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace, floor length, over which fell from a small cap, a long tulle veil which was carried by a small niece of the bride, Peggy Durlesser, of Warren. The bride's flowers were white rosebuds, arm bouquet.

Attendants were Jean Hofmeister, of New Castle, as maid of honor. Miss Hofmeister wearing a coral lace gown, with which Johanna Hill roses in an arm bouquet, harmonized. Ethel Cage and Marguerite Fenton, both of Warren, were bridesmaids, wearing pastel hued taffeta gowns. They carried Talisman roses.

Ben Lepola, a brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Jack Bollard and Harold Lance, all of Warren. Delightful organ music was rendered preceding and during the pretty exchange of vows, by Mrs. E. Dambaugh, also of the Ohio city.

At the reception following in the bride's home, 50 guests were served a delicious buffet supper. Table decorations were baby mums, effectively arranged, and flanked on either side with tall ivory tapers in silver holders.

The bridal couple departed later in the evening for a wedding trip and when it is concluded, they will returned to Warren where they will go to housekeeping in a newly furnished apartment at 485 Highland avenue.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Warren G. Harding high school, of Warren. The bride is a graduate nurse of the 1931 class of the Warren City hospital. The groom is identified with the Crystal Dairy company.

McNEAL-MATHEUS NEWS REVEALED AT DINNER

Many events of interest took place on Thanksgiving Day, among them one which centers in the home of Mrs. Norman J. Anderson, of Walmo, when she entertained at a 6 o'clock family dinner party in observance of the holiday. The occasion, fittingly celebrated, was used as a medium of making known the marriage of Sadie E. McNeal and Lewis C. Matheus, this city.

After the serving of the menu, Master Billy Stump, acting as messenger boy, delivered a telegram to the hostess, which read "Sadie and Lew—October 4, 1935," taking the assemblage by complete surprise. The event was performed in the Methodist church of Foxburg, with Rev. E. J. Edwards, pastor, officiating. They were unattended.

Mrs. Matheus was formerly of Foxburg, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson, of New Wilmington. For the past few months she has been nursing in the J. C. Syling home on Franklin avenue, this city. Mr. Matheus is connected with the Pennsylvania Power Company of this city.

BARBARA ARMSTRONG AND A. COWMEADOW WED

Among many events taking place on Thanksgiving Day, was the wedding last evening of Miss Barbara Jane Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Armstrong, 607 East Reynolds street, and Austin Lee Cowmeadow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cowmeadow, 912 Beckford street. The ceremony took place in the Central Christian church with the Rev. C. W. Johnstone, pastor, officiating, with the single ring service. The vows were plighted in the presence of an assemblage numbering nearly 500.

The bride was stunning in a Dubonnet, chiffon velvet, made Renaissance style, with floor length skirt, cowl neckline, and brilliants used for buttons and clasps. She wore a turban of net matching her gown, other accessories being white gloves and silver slippers. Her arm bouquet was yellow chrysanthemums. Her sister, Miss Mary Armstrong, and only attendant, chose a green crepe, fashioned with floor length skirt, metallic hat, and accessories to match. She wore a shoulder corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Carl Bauman of New Castle, a room-mate of the groom, served as best man. Those who ushered included friends of the groom, David Vago, James Cowmeadow, George and Albert Bauman of this city and Willard Porter of Granville Summit, Pa.

While the guests were being ushered to their seats, Roy Strobel played a program of nuptial music, including "At Dawning", "I Love You Truly", "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "O Promise Me". As the bride proceeded to the beautifully decorated altar, the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" was heard, and for the recessional, the "Wedding March" from "Mid Summer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn was played. Ferns, palms and chrysanthemums, in yellow and white, with indirect lights effects being used, made an attractive setting for the bridal party.

A congratulatory period followed afterwards at the church, and later, an informal reception at the bride's house was held, when a buffet lunch was served.

The couple left later on an extended wedding trip. Upon their return they will be "at home" to friends in their newly furnished residence at 2102 Delaware avenue, this city, after December 1. For traveling, the bride wore a smart swagger suit of brown, beaver trimmed with brown velvet hat and accessories to match.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle high school with the class of '25, and is affiliated with the Strouss-Hirshberg company. WESTMINSTER CHAPEL SCENE OF WEDDING

Thanksgiving day was chosen by Marian Ethel Ferver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Price of New Wilmington, for her marriage to James Gordon Nevin, son of Mrs. James G. Nevin of Elizabeth, Pa.

The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock in Westminster college chapel, before an embankment of ferns, intermingled with large baskets of white chrysanthemums and pom poms. Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, Westminster president, officiated in the presence of nearly a hundred close friends and relatives, many of whom were from Pittsburgh, Elizabeth, Pa., Washington, Pa., and New Castle. Quota club associates of the bride from this city were among the number.

The bride wore a lovely gown of ivory transparent velvet, floor length, with which a small ivory velvet off-the-face turban, and short tulle veil, harmonized. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her attendant was Lois H. Fenton of New Wilmington, who was costumed in a blue chrystelle velvet of medium blue color, with matching hat. An arm bouquet of Talisman roses completed her ensemble.

Thomas G. Grenfell, Jr., of Clairton, Pa., was best man, and ushering were Charles F. Cover of Ellwood City and Phillips Brooks of Mt. Lebanon. Preceding the ceremony an organ program of nuptial melodies was played by Mrs. Albert Skillen of this city, who concluded her delightful program with the Mendelssohn "Wedding March".

At the Price home on Waugh avenue, after the service, a reception was held for some 25 members of the immediate families. Pink roses and white baby mums were used effectively throughout the home in decorations, a particularly beautiful arrangement centering the dining room table from which an elegant supper menu was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin are on a honeymoon in the east, and next week they will go to Elizabeth, Pa., to reside, Mr. Nevin being identified with the Clairton Steel company at that place.

Both the bride and groom are Westminster college graduates. The bride is a sorority girl, popular in New Castle and vicinity, as well as her home town. The groom is a member of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity.

HAY-RITTER WEDDING EVENT AT EMLENTON

Quietly celebrated, was the wedding of Miss Mildred V. Hay, 726½ Cleveland avenue, and Clyde Arthur Ritter, 933 Marshall avenue, which took place Thanksgiving morning, November 28, at Emlenton, Pa., in the parsonage of the Methodist church of that city. The Rev. E. J. Edwards, pastor, and an intimate friend of the bride's family, officiated with the single ring service, at 10 a. m.

The bride was lovely in a midnight-blue crepe dress, made with floor length skirt, high neckline, and long fitted sleeves. She wore matching accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of pink tea roses and bouvardia. Her sister and only attendant, Mrs. Lester Smith, was attired in rose-petal crepe, made on similar lines, with accessories in black. Her shoulder bouquet was made up of the same choice flowers. Lester Smith, brother-in-law of the bride, served the groom as best man.

The vows were exchanged in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nevel and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith of this city, and Mrs. E. J. Edwards, wife of the pastor. Immediately afterwards, the local residents returned to New Castle via motor, and were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey on Mulberry street, uncle and aunt of the bride, where the wedding dinner was served. A large cake, topped with a bride and groom in miniature, formed the centerpiece of the table, seating members of the immediate families. Blue and yellow was the predominating color theme used throughout in the appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritter dispensed with a wedding trip for the present, and have gone to housekeeping in their newly furnished home on Cleveland avenue, where they will receive their friends.

Both the bride and groom are well known, she being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hay, who resided here, and was graduated from the New Castle high school in '33. Mr. Ritter is the son of Samuel A. Ritter of Foxberg, and is identified with the local Johnson Bronze Company. He was a member of the Foxberg high school graduating class of '29.

TIME BY THE FORELOCK

CHRISTMAS shopping—and Christas mailing—incredible as it may seem, are once more becoming timely topics. Thanksgiving Day has come and gone and everybody knows what that means in promise ahead. Christmas will be here before you know it, or it will seem so. It is time to think not only of early Christmas shopping, but early Christmas mailing of parcels to go farther than just across the street.

The stores are fairly raring to go. Hardly will the fragrance of Thanksgiving turkey and fixin's fade from the atmosphere before the store windows will blossom into allures for happy dollars, and bundle laden folk will be out on the streets, Christmas glint in eye.

To say it and get it over with—Do Your Christmas Shopping Early. Do your Christmas Mailing Early. And everybody will be much happier, including—especially—those who do their delivering early.

WE'LL SEND THE BILLS

The United States again is preparing bills to be sent to twelve nations informing them that their annual war debt payments will be due December 15. What a pleasant shock it would be if the payments were made! Such action of course, is not anticipated, with the usual exception Little Finland is expected to come across with the full amount, $230,000, but the other debtor nations, if they run true to form, will acknowledge receipts of the bills and express assurance that the matter will be given early consideration.

The debtor nations are too busy building up their defense forces to take out time to write checks for such a trifling sum as the $965,414,177 54 which Uncle Sam could use to such advantage at this time.

It is rather strange that of all the powers, with their tremendous resources, the small nation of Finland should be the only one setting an example of integrity when it comes to debts.

SCHISM IN LABOR'S RANKS

The resignation of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, as vice president of the American Federation of Labor, foreshadows a struggle between those forces in the federation, led by President William Green, that incline toward conservation, and the extremists who look to Lewis for leadership.

Such a conflict has long been in the making. With each succeeding annual convention during recent years the manifestations of discord have become more numerous and serious. The Atlantic City session only a few weeks ago was marked by the unprecedented spectacle of a fight on the floor and a close approach to rioting.

Gradually the rift between Green and Lewis has widened, due not only to their conflicting views on the respective merits of the so-called vertical union, embracing all workers connected with a particular industry, and the craft unions of specialized workers, but also to personal differences.

A recent rebuke by Green precipitated the sudden and unexpected action by Lewis and created a situation which may mean that the American Federation will be torn asunder by internal strife or else that it will depart from the traditions of conservatism that have consistently distinguished its progress.

CERTAINLY—SIMPLIFY

Aside from cutting expenditures, there is no greater present need at Washington than a simplification of the complicated and unwieldly system around which revolve the many so-called emergency bureaus and agencies. With functions overlapping, with authority divided, there have been friction, delay and waste where there should have been definite understanding and co-operation.

From time to time the country has been told of some great coordinating scheme about to be carried out, but the tangible results have been practically nil. Now the country is told that the president is considering, in connection with the preparation of the 1936 budget, the consolidation of all relief and unemployment activities in one channel. That may mean much or little, but it is a lot more definite than other similar pronouncements.

As for the necessity, that was demonstrated by the long pending conflict between Secretary Ickes and Mr. Hopkins, as the respective heads of the PWA and the WPA, in which the president finally had to take a hand. As an example of another kind there is the WPA setup. Under it purchases are in charge of Rear Admiral Peoples, paymaster general of the navy department, and workers, as needed, are supplied by the national re-employment service of the labor department upon certification of the ERA. Here are the makings for endless confusion and inextricable red tape.

INNOVATIONS AT END?

Secretary of Commerce Roper's declaration to the Associated Grocery Manufacturers of America that the New Deal legislative program is to all intents finished is good news, indeed, if it is true. Like the smiling Miss Barrymore in response to a curtain call, Mr. Roper says in effect: "That's all there is; there isn't any more."

So are reports from Washington of plans to balance the budget good news, if they are borne out later by performance. There have been other such reports of efforts-to-come, but for some reason they haven't been carried through. Balancing of the budget involved problems that have not yet been plumbed; it will not be as easy as some critics think.

Mr. Roper wants it understood that the "breathing spell" promised by the president to business is not temporary, but permanent. That ought to be a fact. The commerce secretary admits that certain New Deal activities will require some legislative amendment or pointing up, but he insists the goods are all fully on display in the store windows.

Two years and eight months ought to suffice for a thoroughgoing presentation of the recovery-social welfare program. But whether we are to have only fourteen months or five years more of Roosevelt administration, a survey of the record impels some doubt that Secretary Roper's disclaimer of any innovations to come can or will be lived up to.

There is no doubt recent reactions against legislative experimentation and administrative confusion compelled the president to make permanent his breathing spell. Sound political sense, no matter how belated, is always welcome, for it may provide that which is essential to recovery, to wit, more business activity more employment and more payrolls instead of the dole

Black Gold Best For War.

Those 10,000,000 Idle.

The Mighty Airplane.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 29.—When the Japanese plan to absorb a section of Northern China with a population of 95,000,000 seemed to have been abandoned, chaos broke loose in Northern China. Industrious bandits, without fear of Japan's efficiency, began looting stores and Chinese merchants beg Japan to restore order.

Eleven Japanese divisions quartered outside the great wall are ready to move in and Japan will hardly have the heart to stay out under such circumstances.

Later Japan will not have the heart to stay out of the Philippines. Japanese confidence in the sun goddess seems justified. The drift is Japan's way, with Westerners busy planning to kill each other.

THERE ARE, California tells you, several kinds of gold; yellow gold that took crowds to California in 1849; another yellow gold that grows on orange, lemon and grapefruit trees, the white gold water power rolling from the mountains, to produce black gold, power and fertility, and the oil in the ground.

Mussolini's determination to keep oil flowing into Italy, even at risk of European war, shows that oil is more important in war now than yellow gold. It moves great tanks,

HIGHCHAIR DICTATOR

Dictator and tyrant and king,
Monarch and ruler and czar.
Your frown is a terrible thing,
For lord of our kingdom you are.
We run at your slightest command.
Your whims we are quick to obey.
Night and day at your service we stand,
Proud master of all you survey.

The day that your highchair was bought
To us was its terror unknown.
Not one of us harbored the thought
That soon you would make it a throne.
We'd have smiled had they told us that "soon'
Round this you will crawl on your knees
Just to pick up his platter and spoon,
The tyrant who sits here to please."

Now abjectly we bow to your tears,
As slaves who are ruled by the sword.
Your frowns are the worst of our fears.
Your smiles are our sweetest reward.
It is plain you've earned only too well
How eager to please you are we,
But we haven't the heart to rebel
And we haven't the wish to be free.

Harsh words oft of tyrants are said.
Slaves always their masters must hate.
But, strangely, we love you instead
As you rattle your spoon on your plate.
Your whims we are glad to obey
And proudly we kneel at your feet.
Oh, you may be a tyrant; but, say
Was ever a tyrant so sweet?

The 100th anniversary of the birth of Andrew Carnegie was celebrated in many places this week. The affairs were held in the libraries he gave to so many cities. WORDS

A word may bring to one a sorrow,
Or a word may cure a broken heart;
A word, perchance, in anger spoken

A word may sooth or ease an anguish,
A word may take away a pain,
Or a word may cause a smile to vanish
Or even bring it back again.

A man in a suburban town recently wanted to test the civic conscience of his neighbors and he did what is said in history to have been a fable. At night he and his brother moved an enormous bowlder into the middle of the road. The next morning he watched and neighbor and after neighbor came, looked at the bowlder and circled around it with their automobiles. The chief of police, next day, came down the road and he circled around it—no one moved the obstructive stone Then, on Sunday, the man called his neighbors together, got three of them to move the stone, and underneath it came to view a sign "For him who moves this stone." Pinned to the sign was a $20 bill!

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

By Francine Markel

All sorts of tricks may be effectively resorted to when it is necessary to "make a room look like what it really isn't." A few changes here and there, a little ingenuity in your choice of appointments and an unattractive home becomes a thing of beauty.

By the method shown in the sketch above a low-ceilinged room may be given an appearance of height.

The straight-lined curtains (without tiebacks) reaching from floor to ceiling, the full-length cupboard and the vertical lines in the wall paper tend to heighten the lines of the walls and create the illusion of greater distance between the floo and the ceiling.

If you have a room with a low ceiling apply this optical illusion and note the improvement.

Relief Situation Muddled.
States Fear To Assess Taxes.
Ill Equipped To Handle Job.

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th St.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The relief situation gets no better. Few states are equipped to handle it.

A correspondent in one of the leading papers of the nation remarks: "It is noted that the people who cry that the federal government should balance its budget generally insist in the same breath that the federal government should continue direct relief so that the states will not have to impose any new taxes."

Ohio probably has the worst situation of any of the populous states. Government Martin L. Davey, anti-New Deal Democrat, seemingly cannot make up his mind what course to pursue. He does not desire to add new taxes, for he faces re-election next year. The legislature is in the same frame of mind.

Thus we find the Columbus correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, Ralph J. Donaldson, saying: "Difficult as it is to believe, it nevertheless appears probable that some men, women and children in Ohio will have to starve before the legislature will be moved sufficiently to act on the relief problem."

BUILDING COSTS

One of the ways to prosperity—building construction—still presents discouraging obstacles, in spite of better-looking statistics.

America needs new building (it could use millions of houses), but only the most speculative of building ventures is inviting today.

Mortgage interest remains the highest interest.

Building costs are out of proportion to completed values.

And construction workers still rank high among those on relief.

It seems fantastical, yet it is true.

Builders say that a strong protest was made because German steel and French cement were "dumped" into the United States to compete on PWA projects, but nobody looks into this:

That a tariff on steel and other building products, a tariff that permits prices to remain at an abnormal high, so discourages building construction that thousands and thousands of workmen are deprived of jobs.

A lowering of that tariff would not flood the American market with "cheap" products so much as to stimulate a vast industry and provide millions of persons with much-needed homes, observers within the the building industry say. After all, Americans can produce a better and more reasonable mass product than can the Europeans and become immensely wealthy at it, as Henry Ford has proved.

F. D. R. WAITING?

An unusual number of comments have been received on a letter from a woman that appeared in this column.

This woman suggested that President Roosevelt "may resume the New Deal following his re-election."

She added: "I do not believe he has abandoned the New Deal. He could not. Life is evolution—and the laws of life must keep step."

William Owen, of West Palm Beach, Fla., says: "Your woman reader is right. . . A ruler to be successful must direct his actions according to the spirit of the times, and the ruler whose actions do not accord with the times will not be successful. . . Change faces tradition and challenges it. Tradition faces change and resists it. . . .The owner of machines owes a duty to society, as much as does the worker. . . . Is the job complete with 10 million men on the dole?"

Mrs. J. F. Walker, of R. D. 3, Mansfield, O., however, observes: "The strange thing to me in expressions of New Dealers is the fact that, almost without exception, they assume that the New Deal as proposed by the president is without question a panacea for all our ills—the Utopian plan by which all the earth will by and by become heavenly. . . . The pity is we have lost confidence in our government or anything it sponsors. Let us get back to high moral principles—honesty, thrift, integrity, justice; let us live sanely within our income (individually and nationally) and crucify greed. . . . And we shall find the NRA and other N. D. features unnecessary.

Another letter from Mansfield, O., from Mrs. Emma Norton, asserts: "It seems a coincidence that just under the letter you quoted from the woman praising President Roosevelt and the New Deal there should be the following statement:

"'Butter imported into the U. S. the first nine months of 1935 amounted to 21,948,000 pounds. In the same period, 141,808,000 pounds of meat products. Fodder and grain, 21,293,000 pounds.'

"The poor working man is paying the farmers who make the deficiency and fireigners are reaping the harvest. At the same time, the poor working man's family is doing without meat because of prohibitive prices."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A MODERN KING

The story of Charles Wakefield Cadman, concerning the Queen of Norway and her democratic ways will be remembered perhaps by the readers of this column. Here is one on the King of Sweden. The people of these Scandinavian countries are a remarkable people and so are their rulers:

An old nobleman, extremely wealthy and self-important, once drove up to a rural inn in Sweden and demanded of the landlord an immediate change of horses. The landlord expressed regret, but said it would be at least an hour before fresh horses could be brought up.

"This, to me!" demanded the nobleman. "Man, I demand horses immediately." Then, observing some fresh, well-groomed horses that were being led to another carriage, he asked: "For whom are these horses?"

The landlord motioned in the direction of a tall man. "They were ordered for this gentleman," he explained.

The nobleman addressed the tall man. "I say, my man, will you let me have those horses if I pay you a liberal bonus?"

"No, I intend to use them myself."

"Perhaps you are not aware who I am," bellowed the nobleman. "I, sir," am Field Marshal Baron George Sparre, the last and only one of my race."

"I am very glad to hear it," shrugged the tall man, stepping into his carriage. "It would be a terrible thing to think there might be more of you coming."

The tall man was the King of Sweden.

Today's Yesterdays—Nov. 29, 1773—The Sons of Liberty were organized in New York. As quickly as their agents could travel, the organization spread into every colony.

They were the radicals who brought about the American Revolution. They were as execrated in their time as Communists are today.

150 Years Ago—Joseph Martin, Andrew Pickens, Lachian McIntosh and Benjamin Hawkins, acting for the Continental Congress, completed the United States' most remarkable treaty with the Amerindians. It ceded back to the Cherokees, who had been allies of the British in the Revolution, lands in the South Atlantic States which the Cherokees had previously sold to the whites! Frontiersmen refused to abide by the government's promise and give up their lands, and the government built forts to protect the Amerindians!

Nov. 29, 1869—President U. S. Grant signed a treaty for annexation of Santo Domingo to the United States.

The Senate refused to ratify it. There were enough opponents of acquisition of foreign territory by the United States to block it.

Actually, they're elected by members of the Electoral College. Because of this, a candidate can get the biggest popular vote and still lose the Presidency. It has happened!

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP V-37

Troop V-37 held its regular meeting in Sinawik hut this week with a good attendance. After a formal opening with Senior Patrol Leader Hunt Davis in charge, instruction in first aid and Morse code signalling was the main feature. A game of indoor tennis was then enjoyed by the troop.

At the business session flowers were ordered sent to Eddie Donegan, an old member of the troop, who is at home suffering with an injury to his back, and to "Red" Logan, who is in the hospital recovering from recent surgical treatment.

The Eagle patrol was demerited for lack of interest in certain troop obligations.

Lloyd Williams, Scribe.

TROOP 9 IN SESSION

New Castle Troop No. 9 held its regular meeting in the Sunny Avenue school in Union township this week. Assistant Scoutmaster "Zig" Gerlach took charge of the evening's proceedings and did a fine job of directing.

Scoutmaster Jack Turek offered a Thanksgiving prayer and Jack Lucas led the allegiance to the flag. Good turns were reported by the boys.

Scoutmaster Turek gave a talk on his trip to Niagara, N. Y., and illustrated it. Scribe Lucas made a report that four boys passed their swimming tests at the Y. M. C. A. He also told the troop that if every boy followed the example of Scoutmaster Turek the troop would outrank all others in the north district. In all his busy time, Turek has found time to pass tests in zoology, botany and cement work for his merit badges at the November court of honor. Zoology and botany are two of the most difficult to pass.

The scoutmaster's benediction closed the meeting.

Scribe, Jack Lucas.

keeps the planes in the air, it means motion, and successful motion means victory.

THERE WILL be a division of territory in Ethiopia, or there will be war in Europe. Solemn England and reluctant France may make up their minds to that.

There should be enough brains in Washington to keep out of it, and avoid the hyprocrisy of pretending to be neutral while really siding with Ethiopia's hippopotamus-eating barbarians that mutilate children and men, and laugh as they do it.

THE LITERARY DIGEST poll shows 53.28 per cent against the New Deal and 46.72 in favor of it.

An important poll would be that of the ten or twelve millions unemployed, without fixed addresses or telephone numbers, probably missing in any ordinary "poll." What do they think about idleness, long drawn out? How they intend to vote is important.

MIGHTY is the airplane in Northern Brazil, where the "elbow" sticks out into the Atlantic. Soldiers, said by the Associated Press to be guided by Communists, decided to run the government and make it better.

They locked up their officers and were just starting the new "better" government when official airplanes came along with bombs.

"Bang," went one of two bombs, aerial machine guns said "rat-tat-tat" a few times.

The revolutionary soldiers said "that will do," and scattered in the interior. It is hard to "rise and throw off your chains" while capitalism is dropping bombs.

IT PAYS to attract attention properly. Had the Dionnes arrived one at a time they would still be in the "ramshackle poverty-stricken farmhouse of their parents."

Being born together, attracting attention like a flood, earthquakes, or volcanic eruption, they get $50,000 for standing, sitting and talking in front of moving picture cameras for 150 minutes, more than $300 a minute.

THE LITTLE quintuplets will each get $10,000 and they will actually GET the money, since they have King George for a guardian.

If they lived in this country "the court" might appoint a separate legal guardian to protect each one and that protection probably would absorb twenty-five or fifty per cent. A litle later, get-rich-quick gentlemen would get the rest.

HELENE MAYER, one of the best woman fencers in the world, also a Jewess, is said to have accepted Germany's invitation to attend the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin.

This will disappoint many who will think those games should be held elsewhere. To keep things "regular" the Nazis discover that Miss Mayer, fencing champion, is not really a Jewess, because she has only two Jewish grandparents. How do they know?

GOVERNMENT officials say they cannot interfere with bull market in Wall Street, much as they might enjoy interfering with anything because this speculation, they say, is gambling for cash. If men want to gamble they will gamble.

Meanwhile that inflation bond torrent, fifteen billions of it, now stored up in banks, will break loose some day, and you will see real gambling and real inflation.

TROOP NO. 18

American Eagle Troop No. 18 had a meeting at Neshannock school on Tuesday evening.

The meeting was opened by singing songs. The older girls studied first aid and 18 beginners told their pet stories. Games followed. The meeting was closed by a horseshoe formation, songs and taps.

Scribe, Georgetta Singer.

BLUEBONNET TROOP

Bluebonnet Troop No. 4 met Monday evening at the Third U. P. church at 7 o'clock. Games were enjoyed and plans for the cookie sale were discussed. The older girls worked on dressmaking and the younger ones worked on signalling. The new scouts studied their laws. The meeting closed with songs and taps.

Scribe, Cecelia Turner.

TROOP NO. 16

The Girl Scouts of Troop 16 gathered at the home of Mrs. Guy's Tuesday evening to study "Judge Weighing." They would estimate the weight of apples, flour, etc., and then see how near they came to being right.

The girls working on laundress badge met at the home of Mrs. Metzler's for instructions at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The scouts who are working on the cyclist badge will meet at the home of Mrs. Gilbert on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Plans for "court awards" was discussed and if the girls have completed the work required it will be held sometime during Christmas vacation.

The next meeting will take place at their regular meeting place, Walnut Glen, December 3, at 7 o'clock.

Scribe, Helen Stritzinger.

CARDINAL TROOP

The Cardinal Troop No. 7, Girl Scouts, held a regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the North Street school.

After "patrol corners" several of the girls went to the Pennsylvania Power Company, where they studied for the laundress proficiency badge.

Motorists Must Lower Lights Or Pay Out Fine

HARRISBURG, Nov. 29.—"Let The Lower Lights Be Burning" is an old fashioned hymn which Pennsylvania motorists should learn by heart and hum while driving at night.

The 1935 legislature enacted a law making numerous changes in the Motor Vehicle Code among which was a provision that motorists driving at night must lower their headlight beams when passing an approaching car.

This change was made in the law to prevent accidents caused by "headlamp blinding."

Light Regulations

Calling attention to this law today, Secretary of Revenue Harry E. Kalodner said the violators of this provision are liable to a $10 fine or a five-day jail sentence. He said the new amendment requires that the upper or driving beam on all cars equipped with depressible beam headlamps shall illuminate the road 350 feet ahead of the car instead of only 200 feet as in the past. During the motor vehicle inspection campaign just concluded, all cars receiving approval stickers were brought into conformity with the new regulation.

The improved visibility resulting from the lengthened driving beam increases the safety of night driving but might appear glaring in many cases to oncoming drivers. Hence, the new law requires the driver to switch to the lower beam when approaching within 500 feet of an oncoming vehicle.

Aimed At Turn Evils

W. W. Matthews, chief of the division of safety, indicated that careful observance of the new law by motorists should eliminate the twin evils of night driving; insufficient light and glaring lights. The lengthened driving beam provides the motorist with adequate light while the use of the lower beam for passing removes the possibility of dangerous glare.

The amendment provides that on cars still provided with single-beam headlamps, the beams shall be aimed to illuminate the road only 200 feet ahead as in the past. Vehicles equipped with acetylene headlamps are now restricted to a speed of 20 miles per hour when operated at night.

Watch Parking Lights

"Look to your lights when you park," Kalodner also warned, today in calling attention to another amendment to the motor code which requires that lighted headlamps on parked vehicles must be either dimmed or depressed.

"This new amendment is aimed at the annoying and dangerous practice of careless motorists who project the glaring beams from their headlamps at the roadside into oncoming traffic while they change a tire, patronize a roadstand or pay a visit," the secretary said.

"DRUNK" TOO LARGE FOR POLICE CAR

(International News Service)

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 29.—Handling drunks is a problem in any city. But Officers Brawner and Newman had a harder job than usual. Their 350-pound culprit was too big to get in the squad car, and it took eight trusties to carry him in when the patrol wagon got him to jail.

CANNING INDUSTRY HAS RECORD YEAR

HARRISBURG, Nov. 29.—Canneries of Pennsylvania have completed one of the finest packs of canned foods ever produced in the commonwealth, officials of the State Bureau of Markets report in a summary of the season's work with the cannery industry.

Those officials state that thousands of acres of Pennsylvania's most fertile farm lands have been utilized by growers in producing the largest supply of fruits and vegetables ever grown for canneries of the state.

Pennsylvania is steadily increasing acreage utilized for canning crops and this seems justified in view of the favor with which the markets regard Pennsylvania canned goods, the officials state.

CLIPPER PLANE COMPLETES TRIP TO MANILA

Great Reception Accorded Crew

History Making Plane Left California On Last Friday

LAST LEG OF HOP IS MADE FROM GUAM

(International News Service)

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 29.—Completing the last leg of her 8,000-mile transpacific airmail inaugural flight from the California mainland to Manila, the trail-blazing China Clipper arrived here today shortly before 4 p. m. (Manila time.)

The flying boat left Apra Harbor, Guam, at 6:06 a. m. today (12:06 p. m. P.S.T. Thursday) arriving here at 3:31 p. m. (11:31 p. m. P.S.T. Thursday) after 11 hours 20 minutes in the air.

Capt. Edwin C. Musick said the final 1,500-mile lap from Guam was uneventful for the 25-ton four-motored flying boat.

The Clipper left Alameda, Cal., last Friday after being taxied in easy stages from the east coast by way of Acapulco, Mex., and San Diego, Cal.

Following a preliminary inspection it was announced the ship's four motors were in excellent condition.

After circling the silver Clipper over Manila for a half hour, Capt. Musick, magellan of the air, dipped the giant craft low over the cheering thousands and made a beautiful landing off shore.

Vessels ranging from cruisers to native dugouts shrieked an excited welcome as the Clipper was pulled up gracefully before the multitudes.

Extend Welcome

Secretary of Communications Antonio Delasalas was one of several who extended an official welcome to Capt. Musick and his crew.

"Hereafter the Philippines can no longer consider they are located in an isolated sector of the world," Delasalas said in commenting on the close connecting link with the mainland afforded by the new Clipper route.

Eight-year-old Manuel Quezon, Jr., son of the newly inaugurated president of the Philippines, solemnly greeted the visiting birdmen and posed for pictures with them.

As the crew left the welcoming enclosure, a huge crowd swept forward in their eagerness for closer glimpses of the men, necessitating a police escort before the visitors could go to Malacanang palace, where they were officially welcomed by President Manuel Quezon.

The crew took the presidential welcome jovially and appeared as fresh as the day they left California a week ago.

So intense has the interest been on the Clipper flight that $25,000 worth of memorial stamps already have been sold.

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave—you can't if you listen to gossipers—Mrs. Pierce has a mind of her own.

To take off excess fat go light on fatty meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—eat more fruit and vegetables. Take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning to eliminate excess waste (tastes fine with juice of half lemon added)—Kruschen is as low as 40c.

Mrs. W. L. Pierce of Tiffin, Ohio, writes: "I've taken off 50 lbs. in 6 months. I was 238 and intend to continue till I'm 134."

STILL MAKE QUILTS DOWN IN "OLE ALABAMA"

CLANTON, Ala.—The chain letter fad might be as out of date as last year's dress but it is causing a bit of attraction in Chilton county. The post office is getting plenty of letters from rural routes. But they don't call for money. Instead, the writers ask for bits of cloth to make quilts.

QUEER STORY OF IDENTICAL TWINS

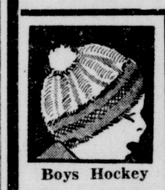

(International News Service)

SAINT JOHN, N. B.—Those who scoff at an "affinity" between twins should read this true story of what happened here. Walter and Richard Evans, are 45 year old twins and are as alike as two pears. Working on the waterfront here, Walter had his left hand crushed in an accident. At exactly the same time, a dynamite cap exploded a few miles away and injured the left hand of his twin brother Richard.

Every land needs two parties: Liberals to burn accumulated trash and Conservatives to put out the fire.

People Of U. S. Not To Be Drawn Into Foreign War

Decisively Opposed To "Meddling In Europe," Senator Finds

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The people are so decisively opposed to "meddling in Europe," they want the new neutrality act strengthened to include a ban on exports of cotton, oil and other like products to warring nations, Senator Frederick Van Nuys (D) of Indiana, declared here today.

Van Nuys also declared he had found the people so opposed to European entanglements he believed the senate would reject American entry into the World Court by a greater majority if the issue were again submitted. He made this statement in the face of the fact that he advocated and voted for American entry only last January, when the senate defeated the proposal. He indicated he would vote against the court if the issue were raised.

"In my recent visits among the people," said Van Nuys, "I found one of the paramount questions was whether the United States would be drawn into the next war. I found the people wholly in sympathy with the neutrality act and with the proposal to strengthen it at the next session of congress.

"They are so opposed to meddling in Europe and to any American alliance with Europe that if the World Court should again be submitted to the senate, I believe it would get fewer votes than the last time."

"Would you vote for it again?" he was asked.

"I'd have to give that question very, very serious consideration," he replied. "The developments of the present Italo-Ethiopian war and the threat of a general European war have convinced me we must stay out of foreign entanglements either in peace or in war."

Van Nuys declared the neutrality issue might become a great issue in the next presidential campaign.

Assessor To Review Henry Assessment

Ed. Henry today appeared before council which met as a board of appeals and tax revision. He complained of the assessment on a new building in North Mill street. He said the building, which is for storeroom purposes cost between $3,600 and $3,800 to build, but it had been assessed at $7,200. Upon advice of Finance Director Albert Hoyland, the complaint was referred to Assessor J. W. Cartwright, who will review the assessment.

TRUCK AND GARAGE DAMAGED BY FIRE

The truck owned by Ed Garver was being repaired when the gasoline caught fire, which spread to the ceiling of the garage. The cab of the truck was burned in addition to the damage done to the garage.

Florida Miss Who Didn't Miss

No one north of the Mason-Dixon line ever thought of wearing a bathing suit on a turkey hunt but, in Miami, Fla., it seems to be the vogue if Mary Weems with her Thanksgiving dinner slung over her pretty shoulder is a criterion. (Central Press)

Edith Maxwell Not Allowed To See Her Mother

Jailer Forbids Mother Of Convicted Girl To Visit Jail

(International News Service)

WISE Va., Nov. 29.—Ill-feeling against what they described as outsiders attempting to interfere with their jurisprudence was spreading among the elder hill folk today.

Hostility against the protests made by persons in other states against the 25-year imprisonment imposed upon Edith Maxwell, 21, for killing her father, Trigg Maxwell, was so pronounced that Edith was not allowed to see her mother yesterday.

Jim Dotson, the jailor, is Edith's uncle. He said he refused the mother permission to visit Edith, "because I don't want to take any chances of increasing the bad feeling among some of the folks here."

Has Big Dinner

Because of this resentment among a certain class of her own people, Edith had to eat her Thanksgiving dinner alone. Her mother sent her a roast chicken, vegetables and an angel food cake. The mother faces trial next spring on a charge of being an accessory in the murder.

Meanwhile women's clubs in Virginia and in Tennessee appointed committees to come here and investigate Edith's case and seek to have the jury's mandatory sentence of 25 years set aside, either by a new trial of a governor's pardon.

Seek New Trial

Arguments for a new trial will be held December 12. If the court refuses the judge will formally sentence Edith to remain in prison 25 years.

Edith testified she struck her father, who was drunk, when he started to beat her for staying out to near midnight with a boy friend. The rule of this mountainous section is that no girl shall be out after 8 p. m. unless chaperoned. Edith said the jury was prejudiced against her because she flaunted this Archaic code.

Returns As King

KING GEORGE II

Thousands cheered the return to Greece of King George II, whose 10-year exile was cut short by the one-sided monarchist majority in the national plebiscite in Greece on November 3. But, behind the scenes, hundreds of Republicans, who favored a continuation of the republic, were arrested. Photo above is King George's latest studio portrait.

Women Barred As French Diplomats

(International News Service)

PARIS—Fench-women are not only denied the right of voting. They do not have a chance of entering in the diplomatic career.

President Albert Lebrun, Premier and Foreign Minister Pierre Laval have solemnly issued a decree preventing ambitious young women from becoming diplomats.

Some time ago a young and pretty girl, Mademoiselle Borel, embarrassed the Qual d'Orsay when she entered for the diplomatic examinations and easily outclasse her male competitors. Still causing much concern she began to work her way up through several departments and there was even a question once of putting her in charge of the diplomatic pouch department.

Mlle. Borel by special decree, will remain in the service, but cannot rise to a foreign assignment or high post.

The United States, Mexico and Soviet Russia are among nations with women diplomats abroad.

Report Body Of Prisoner's Wife Found In Idaho

(International News Service)

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 29.—The body of Mildred Hook Van Vlack, missing divorced wife of Douglas Van Vlack, held here for first degree murder in connection with the slaying of a state patrolman, has been found in the desolate sage brush country several miles from Twin Falls, according to meager reports received here today at the sheriff's office.

Details of the girl's death were not immediately learned.

The discovery ended a week's search for the pretty 22-year-old Tacoma divorcee. It began last Saturday after her former husband snatched her from a Tacoma street and forced her, at pistol point, to accompany him on the wild ride through Washington, Oregon and Idaho which ended in tragedy near Buhl when Van Vlack allegedly shot and killed State Patrolman Fontaine Cooper and seriously wounded Deputy Sheriff Henry Given as the officers sought to arrest him.

When questioned by officers, Van Vlack declared they had separated on the banks of an irrigation canal when Mrs. Van Vlack became exhausted and could not follow him as he pushed on through fields and sage brush lands.

The slayer was found exhausted lying in a ditch Tuesday morning and offered no resistance as possemen disarmed him and turned him over to Sheriff E. F. Prater.

The prisoner denied that he had harmed his wife in any way when grilled in the Twin Falls county jail where he is held without bail on first degree murder charges.

Britain Studies War Threats On Embargo Move

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The British government today studied "certain precautionary measures" which it felt ought to be taken in view of the open Italian warning that application of an oil embargo against Italy might well lead to a European war.

The cabinet's sub-committee on sanctions held a long meeting at the treasury and was understood to have discussed the oil embargo attitude to be taken by the British delegation at Geneva when the league committee meets, probably next month, to debate stoppage of Italy's oil supplies.

Several high cabinet ministers attended the meeting. Details of "precautionary measures" were not disclosed, but were believed concerned with reports Italy was increasing her armed forces in Libya on the borders of Egypt and the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan.

The belief was general that Premier Mussolini was ready for some sort of drastic action in the event the oil embargo is clamped down, and consequently the proposed oil sanctions and Britain's defense were interlocked issues.

Capt. Anthony Eden, minister for League of Nations affairs; Sir John Simon, home minister, and Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, were among the ministers attending the meeting. Many permanent officials and technical experts were called in for consultation on fhe problems surrounding the oil question.

Will Rogers Memorial Fund To Aid Kiddies

Gift Of Hospital And Sustaining Fund For This Purpose Announced

EXTEND DRIVE TO DECEMBER 14

In extending the Will Rogers Memorial Fund until December 14, Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, director of the operations committee, announced today that the Will Rogers memorial funds will be devoted largely to aid handicapped children all over the country.

This means that children suffering with physical handicaps will be given hospital care and expert medical attention. It is for those children whose parents lack the means to give them the care they need; youngsters who walk in darkness, smiling despite the burden of blindness; those who have heart trouble; victims of disease, whose lot can be made happier or who can be brought back to partial or complete activity through expert attention; and those who, although in health, need shelter, schooling and home care which fate denied them.

Want All To Share

With the announcement that most of the funds are to be devoted to aid these handicapped children, and the new impetus imparted by the knowledge that the memorial would be a work so close to Will Rogers' heart, hundreds of local chairmen in many parts of the country asked that the campaign be extended. The commission readily complied and the campaign closing date was extended to December 14.

It is the wish of the memorial commission that the memorial be truly representative of the millions who loved Will Rogers. It would rather have a fund made up of the dollars, even the quarters and dimes, of his host of friends, than of a few large subscriptions.

Among the large gifts already received toward the establishment of permanent memorials for the relief of the handicapped kiddies of the nation, is that of a million dollar hospital at Saranac, N. Y., and a fund of a half million dollars to maintain it for five years, presented by the National Variety Artists Fund, Inc., who gave the hospital and the maintenance fund by the five major theater groups, Fox West Coast Theaters, Leow's Inc., Paramount Theaters Service Corp., Radio-Kieth-Orpheum Corp., and Warner Brothers Theater Circuit.

In commenting on the decision to Capt. Rickenbacker said: "Will Rogers was a believer in the saying of that great Teacher, 'Suffer the little children to come unto me.' He always loved children and made them his friends, particularly the unfortunate, the crippled and the needy. That's why I seem to see again that wide, honest and delighted smile spread across Will Rogers' face at the knowledge that the Will Rogers memorial funds will be devoted largely to aid handicapped children all over the country."

Many here will undoubtedly wish to share in this great work. Chairman Fred L. Rentz stated today, and they will be given this opportunity until December 14. Contributions may be sent to Chairman Fred L. Rentz at the office of The News Company, or to any officer of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis clubs, or Junior Chamber of Commerce. Clip the coupon below and send in with your contribution.

STAMP NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

BY JOHNRAE EARL, SEC. NEW CASTLE STAMP CLUB.

Recently the Philippine Islands issued their first stamps since their freedom. These were placed on sale at Washington.

The stamps are the size of our "duck" stamps, printed in rich colors and very well executed. The stamps come in sheets of thirty, five across and six down with the plate number in the center of the top or bottom according to the pane. The same design was used for all of the stamps.

Face value of the set is 55c and according to the list from the Commissioner's office the stamps will only be sold in complete sets. When placed on sale in Washington, the Commissioner had 20 thousand sets which is less than their usual quantity. This is a commemorative set and not intended to substitute for a regular issue.

Postmaster General James A. Farley attended the dedication of the United States Post Office Building at Pineville, Kentucky. In his address he stated:

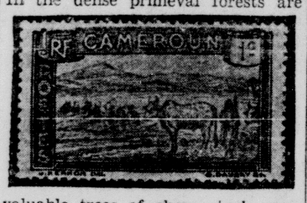

There are many difficulties to be surmounted in the handling of the mail. To begin with, we have 126 million customers, served from more than 46 thousand post offices. We have approximately four and one-half billion pounds of mail in a year, and issue almost 200 million money orders annually. Our postal savings deposits amount to one billion 200 million dollars for the last fiscal year.

These facts may astound you but they are never-the-less true and they are also very interesting to read.

CAMEROON-EXPLORER'S PARADISE

When nations go to war, their possessions in all parts of the world become fair game and rich prizes for the enemy. During the World War, Germany lost all of her colonies everywhere. One of them was the interesting land of Cameroon, on the west coast of Africa, which Germany had annexed in 1885 five days before a British counsul arrived for the same purpose.

The land is an explorer's paradise. Over the vast grassy plains roam swarms of antelope and other game. In the dense primeval forests are valuable trees of ebony, teak, mahogany and redwood. Wild animals abound: Leopards, elephants, gorillas, chimpanzees and buffalo, and many strange natives are found: the fantastic pygmies, the cannibals (who used to bring home missionaries for dinner), and native chiefs with from six to sixty wives!

On the coast, rising up steeply from the sea to a height of almost three miles is Mt. Cameroon, an active volcano which was first explored by Sir Richard Burton, that redoubtable adventurer, explorer, soldier and student, who was the original translator of the "Arabian Nights."

Most of the former German colonly now belongs to France, and is a part of French Equatorial Africa. The natives export many strange products: palm oil, palm kernels or copra, ivory, coffee, tobacco, and indigo; and make their living chiefly by farming and, as you can see by the postage stamp which is illustrated, the raising of cattle.

The most Western Post Office in the United States is Port Orford, Ore., which town is just about straddling longitude 124,30'. Hardly any argument on this point.

The most Northwestern Post Office is Tatoosh, Washington, but it is located on an island ¾ of a mile off shore. If that does not suit you, then we have to drop back to Neah Bay, Wash., which is located exactly six miles east-southeast of Cape Flattery on the mainland.

The most Southwestern Post Office in the U. S. is to be found in Nestor, San Diego county, Calif. Nestor is only 3½ miles northeast from the point where the boundary between the United States and Mexico disappears in the big drink. There is no other office reported intervening.

Recent political events in Greece and the military activities in Africa have focused attention upon the small but highly important island of Cyprus which, behind its fortifications, lies in control of the ship lanes through the east end of the Mediterranean. Dominated by the British for many years, the population of the island is Greek and almost simultaneously with the decision of the old mother country to recall its exiled king, residents of Cyprus have begun a clamor for a return to the rule of Athens.

At another time the plea might have been recognized by London, but in view of the present crisis in the Mediterranean it seems most unlikely that Great Britain will consider relinquishing her control.

The evening gown with long tight sleeves, or with bouffant sleeves, is important in first fall styles. It is a life saver to the woman who has little need of a low-cut gown.

Two Are Killed In Gas Explosion

Double Tragedy Occurs At Franklin On Thanksgiving Day

(International News Service)

FRANKLIN, Pa., Nov. 29.—Trapped in their fire-swept apartment following a gas explosion which resulted when they were lighting a hotplate to prepare a Thanksgiving Day feast, George McFate, 64, and John Kimble, 82, lay dead today. Cause of the explosion was not immediately determined.

McFate fell 28 feet to his death after clinging helplessly to the edge of the roof almost until firemen arrived, while Kimble, his bachelor apartment companion, succumbed to severe burns a few hours later in the Franklin hospital.

The explosion broke with such force that glass was hurled 30 feet across the street while flames swept over the highway, jamming traffic for several hours. Tenants in the building were routed from their rooms and all efforts to reach the victims were futile in face of the raging fire.

Salvation Army Makes New Plea

Campaign For $2,500 Needs Public Support, Leader Declares

Declaring that the Salvation Army in New Castle and elsewhere "covers a field peculiarly its own," Mrs. Lucy E. Lyons, Pittsburgh campaign director of the Army, who is now managing the New Castle drive for $2,500, appealed for public support today.

Donors, large and small, were asked to mail their checks to the treasurer of the Home Service fund, care of the Salvation Army, New Castle.

In a public message Mrs. Lyons said:

"The Salvation Army can and does perform services no other agency can do. It covers a field peculiarly its own. It appeals to a class of people no other organization has been able to reach. This it does in a most efficient manner, by its own special methods and through the consecrated efforts of its leaders and workers.

"Through its program of charitable work the Salvation Army touches the lives of the needy, giving them aid in forms that directly provides for their creature comforts. If hungry, it gives them food; if without shelter, it is furnished; if without shoes or clothing, they are provided; if sick, it secures medical attention, or lacking other necessities, it serves as a generous provider.

"Any agency that performs service of this character in a community is deserving of liberal support by all those circumstanced to give it.

"The Salvation Army should be regarded as one of the established institutions of the community and be regularly equipped to carry on its kindly ministrations without stint."

Police Dance Proves Success

Approximately 400 Couples Attend Annual F. O. P. Event

Approximately 400 couples attended the ball given by the Fraternal Order of Police at the Cathedral last night. Dancing was in vogue from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. The crowd was one of the largest ever to attend the annual event and the dancers came from all walks of life. It was a success from all viewpoints and the receipts will be used by the police as a part of their share of the proposed pension fund which it is anticipated will be arranged for by city officials, effective next year.

Son Of Former Tennessee Judge Given Two Years

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29—Justice wore a sterner mien when Vernon R. Chumbley, 45, a son of a former Tennessee judge, was arraigned before Federal Judge R. N. Gibson for violating the one year probation term which Chumbley was allowed to prescribe for himself last July before visiting Judge J. Warren Davis for impersonating a federal officer.

And as a result, his probation revoked. Chumbley today was under sentence of two years in a federal penitentiary.

At his first appearance, Chumbley asked for probation, promising Judge Davis he would keep out of trouble and rehabilitate himself. Judge Davis granted the request but it was testified Chumbley impersonated federal officials shortly after being released on probation.

Policemen To Stage Benefit

(International News Service)

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Nov. 29.—This city's strong arm of the law, somewhat weakened by pay checks four months in arrears, today took things into their own hands to help this community out of its financial woes by planning a "benefit" policeman's ball as a means of raising funds to buy new uniforms.

The 14-man police department, according to Chief Hugh McDermott, will sponsor a "flat-foot stomp January 3, in an effort to provide $1,000 for new apparel to go with their brass buttons.

It was indicated that the firemen and garbage plant workers, who also have received pay checks with irregularity will also stage a benefit.

Many Out-Of-Towners Coming For Christian Church Conference

A conference of Christian Endeavor Society members from Christian churches in this district of Western Pennsylvania is getting underway in the First Christian church on the public square this afternoon, and will be continued through Saturday and Sunday.

Hosts of the occasion are the three local Christian churches, First, Central and Madison avenue. Arrangements were made by a committee of young people of the three churches, aided by the pastors, Dr. G. S. Bennett, Rev. Charles Warren Johnstone and Rev. W. W. Sniff.

Last night 90 registrations had been received from out-of-town delegates. The number is expected to be increased considerably during the morning.

The program calls for a banquet tonight in the First Christian church, luncheon tomorrow at noon, a tour of the American Can Company in the afternoon, a dinner program Saturday evening and a business meeting Sunday morning.

A number of well known speakers have been engaged; their addresses will be especially designed to interest and inspire young people.

Washington County Pupils Travel Long Distance

High School Students Cover 46 Miles Daily As Champion Travelers

HARRISBURG, Nov. 29.—Students of the Trinity High School, in Washington, Pa., travel a greater distance from their homes to school in the course of a year than the pupils of any other school in the state.

There are 867 pupils enrolled in the school, and the average distance traveled is ten miles daily. There are seventy pupils who have twenty-five to forty-six and a half miles to cover every school day, going to and from their homes.

This record, which aggregates more than 1,600,000 miles traveled in a school year by all pupils if they attended school every school day, is said to be outstanding in the State by officials of the child accounting division of the Department of Public Instruction. Figures were supplied by Kenneth H. Gordon, principal of the school.

Prison Fugitives Nabbed In Crash

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Nov. 29.—Samuel Kuhns, a deputy game warden of Howard, drove his car into a collision with that of two fleeing convicts Thursday, and caused their recapture by three highway patrolmen.

The fugitives, Chester Robinson of Tioga county and Leo Stiles, Potter county, escaped in a stolen auto Wednesday from Rockview penitentiary, where they were trusties.

Near Lock Haven, Robinson and Stiles sighted three patrolmen stopping all cars at an intersection. The fugitives started to turn their car, but Kuhns drove his machine against theirs, and, before they could get untangled, the patrolmen were on the scene.

Stiles is serving two to four years for larceny and Robinson is serving a one-year term for forgery.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 29.—"Within 60 or 90 days I will be a very unpopular man; on January 1, no man will hold a non-essential job in city hall, and I say to you that means plenty of them will go," Mayor-elect Lionel Evans declared before the South Side Merchants & Civic Association at a dinner at the Southern Hills Country club.

"I am going to give the taxpayer what he has been asking for—just this, dollar for dollar."

TOM CAT GUARDS GRAVE OF MASTER

(International News Service)

MUNICH, Nov. 29.—For seven months, a tom cat has been guarding the grave of his master, a fishmonger, at Rehau, North Bavaria. Although not present at the funeral, which took place in March, the cat found its way to the grave. Since then, from dawn to sunset every day, the cat lies on the grave, spitting at all who come near. Often he has to be brought home at night by force for feeding.

Mystery Blonde Has Been Found

True Story Of Slaying Of Dr. Fritz Gebhardt May Be Revealed

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The true story behind the bizarre slaying of Dr. Fritz Gebhardt by pretty, blonde Vera Stretz, may be revealed today.

The lovely "mystery blonde," long sought by the police, has finally been found, it was said, and it is through her the authorities hope to be able to clear up much of the mystery.

The woman, whose identity is being concealed, was located through her husband, to whom she reportedly confessed everything. It was this woman the police allege, who registered at a mid-town hotel with Dr. Gebhardt less than 30 hours before the handsome German industrialist was slain.

The "mystery blonde," according to the police, is a registered nurse, who gave as her address the home of John Templeton in Pelham Manor, Westchester county. On the night of Nov. 10, the police said, she registered with Dr. Gebhardt as "L. Templeton of Manor Lane."

AROUND CITY HALL

Police last night held a dance for the benefit of their pension fund. The profits of the dance will be devoted to the fund which is called for by state law. Council must appropriate monies when they make up the budget for 1936. Some of the men now in service have been trodding pavements for a long time and their only salvation is a pension.

Officials-elect are not spending their time for nothing in city hall So far they have attended the last three meetings of council and time and again have visited the different offices in the building. It may come to pass that stenographic duties may be divided. Some of the girls are not occupied all of the time while others have no minutes to throw away, according to reports. A more equitable division of duties may be arranged according to reports.

NEW HEALTH EXHIBIT

HARRISBURG, Nov. 29.—The State Department of Health is making a new exhibit for the State Farm Show in Harrisburg next January, demonstrating the progress of official public health work in Pennsylvania, types of labor service available to rural communities, milk control activities, and the work of the Crippled Children's Hospital.

Hospital Patients Home For Holiday

Big Drop In Number Of Patients Shown At Jameson Memorial Hospital

Yesterday was one of thanks for a great number of patients who had been in the Jameson Memorial hospital, when all those who could possibly be released with safety, were permitted to return to their homes. As a result, the hospital census figures dropped from the hundred mark down to 86.

Little Bobby Drake, who has been in the hospital with a broken back, doomed to spend the rest of his days an invalid, was among those who went home to spend Thanksgiving Day. He will be brought back to the hospital again today, however.

MAN IS LYNCHED FOR SHEEP STEALING

(International News Service)

MADRID, Nov. 29.—A man was lynched in the village of Villacampo (Zamora)—for stealing his neighbor's sheep. The whole of one night, with his wife and 18-year-old son, he strove to defend his house from enraged villagers. By morning both he and his son had been wounded and an ambulance was summoned. But before the ambulance could start the man was dragged out and was practically torn limb from limb by the mob.

Instantly You Catch Cold

Do These 2 Things

For Fast Relief, Remember These Pictures

Two Bayer Aspirin tablets with a full glass of water.

Three Bayer Aspirin tablets, crushed and dissolved in ½ glass of water as a gargle. Gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back to permit this medicated gargle to reach the irritated membranes of the throat.

Your doctor will approve this treatment as perhaps the quickest, simplest way known to fight cold and sore throat.

The Bayer Aspirin taken internally will combat a cold almost instantly, and ease the usual pains that accompany one. The gargle will ease sore throat in a few minutes. For it acts like a local anesthetic in relieving pain and rawness.

When you buy, though, see that you get real BAYER ASPIRIN tablets. For they dissolve almost instantly in the stomach and thus start working almost instantly. And they dissolve completely enough to use as a gargle. Watch out for this.

WHY BAYER ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST

Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a glass of water.

By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating.

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH

A Genuine Bayer Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work.

What happens in these glasses happens in your stomach—Genuine BAYER Aspirin tablets start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

ASSEMBLIES

To mark the occasion of Thanksgiving two assemblies were held this week. The first which was attended by the upper classmen and proved to be very entertaining.

The assembly was opened with devotionals being led by Principal F. L. Orth. Following this the students rendered the selection, "Faith of Our Fathers," and were accompanied by the orchestra under the direction of Professor Joseph Replogle.

Lewis Print was then heard from as he very ably rendered the president's official proclemation on Thanksgiving.

The Westminster college quartet under the direction of Alan B. Davis, rendered selections both at this point and at the close of the program on Tuesday. But on Wednesday before the lower class assembly, Charles Thomas, tenor soloist of the First M. E. church, sang a group of songs in the place of the Westminster quartet, which was unable to attend on Wednesday.

Rev. J. J. McIlvaine, the guest speaker, was then called upon for his views of Thanksgiving. Rev. McIlvaine's talk proved to be very interesting, and was greatly enjoyed by the student body. Upon the request of Mr. Orth, Rev. McIlvaine delivered the same address at the assembly the following day.

Climaxing a very interesting season, the Junior Varsity football team of the Senior high school, with two wins, one loss, and one tied game.

Winning over George Washington with a score of 12-0, and carrying off a score of 26-0 from Union high school reserves, make up the two games which were won. The team lost to Mercer high school with a score of 13-6 and tied with Shenango high school, 6-6.

This team was coached by William Klee and he announces that the team will again be organized next year and an endeavor will be made to schedule more teams to play.

At the close of football season each year the drafting department prepares a large red and black board and places the names and scores of all of the games on it. In addition, the name of the captain and the names of the coaches are placed on this tablet.

Upon completion this record will be placed in the athletic room with the records of seasons past.

CHEER LEADERS ACTIVE

Three of our cheer leaders, Reid Shiner, Howard Updegraff, and Benny Jenkins visited the George Washington Junior High School on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

The purpose of their visit was to conduct a pep meeting for the students of this school, and to lead them in the many New Castle football cheers.

Reid Shiner acted as master-of-ceremonies and a very interesting program was presented to the students of Washington.

VISIT SHARON

This visitation was made the day before the game and in answer to Gregor's speech the principal of the Sharon school gave a welcoming address before those assembled.

NEW BOOKS

Miss Helen Westlake, librarian, announces that she has added three new books to the shelves of the school library. Two of these are reference books and the other is written on the subject of woodcraft, and will prove especially interesting to the Boy Scouts of the school.

The titles of these new books are as follows: "The Book of Woodcraft" by Ernest Thompson Seton, Rand McNally Atlas, and a new biographical dictionery. The last two books are very worthwhile additions to the library and their addition will permit a larger number of students to use reference books at the same time.

MAKING MODELS

There is a very interesting project being made in Miss Griffith's history classes. Several boys of her different classes are building model locomotives, which begin with the earliest and continue up to the modern locomotive. The following six trains are being built: Tom Thumb, Hudson Wilson; Peter Cooper, Walter Hannon and James Morris; The Pioneer, Charles Kacmarcy; Model of 1863, Robert Loudon; Empire State Express, Bob Brest and the Modern Locomotive, Edwin Wilson.

MONOGRAPHS RECEIVED

Undecided about your career? The library will settle this question for you, as it has recently received about fifteen monographs of "Careers" to be added to those they already have. These monographs are published by the Institute of Research, Chicago, Illinois. They are now on display in the library and ready for circulation. Those which seem to be most in demand are "The Diesel Engine," and "The Radio." They have been purchased and presented to the library by our principal, Mr. Orth.

ETIQUETTE BOOKS RECEIVED

Learn to do the right things at the right time! The demand in our library for books on etiquette has been so great that the Student Council recently voted to contributed toward the purchasing of such books. They have been received and are now on display in the library. They will be ready for circulation on December 4. Some of these books are simply additions to the old list already in the library, but others have never appeared on the shelves. The list includes: Etiquette, Jr., by Clark and Quigley; New Book of Etiquette, by Lillian Eichler; She Strives to Conquer, by Francis Maule; It's More Fun if You Know the Rules, by Beatrice Pierce; The Correct Thing, by W. O. Stevens; The Right Thing, by W. O. Stevens.

Presidential Race Is Boon To Canada

(International News Service)

QUEBEC—The Presidential campaign and election in the United States in 1936 will result in between eight and twelve million dollars extra flowing into Canada, through increased newsprint exports, it is forecast here.

"There is no reason why between 200,000 and 300,000 tons extra of newsprint should not be exported to the United States during 1936," the trade is being informed. "People are taking great interest in the Presidential election and papers are daily giving more space to it. As the race gets hotter, more and more space will be devoted to the campaigns, etc., and the result will be more orders for Canadian newsprint."

Should the excess exports reach 300,000 tons, it will mean $12,300,000 in additional trade for Canada, most of which would flow into Quebec Province, home of newsprint. This commodity is selling for $41.00 per ton for 1936.

Mussolini Trying To Bluff League?

U. S. Official Quarters Concerned Over Answer To Question

WAR THREAT HOLDS WORLD DANGER

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Is Benito Mussolini bluffing? American officials today believed that in the answer to that question rests the peace of all Europe.

Genuine apprehension was felt in official quarters over Rome reports that the Italian dictator had recalled 100,000 men to the colors and that he may again strengthen the Italian forces near the Anglo-Egyptian frontier.

Answer To British.

This move was seen here as Il Duce's answer to the British foreign office's statement that Britain intended to go ahead with plans for imposition by the League of Nations of an oil and steel embargo against Italy.

It was seen as a threat by Premier Mussolini to induce both Great Britain and France, particularly the latter, to hesitate in imposing the vital oil embargo.

By his actions, Mussolini was seen as warning London and Paris that if the oil embargo is imposed, Italy will retaliate with military force which may plunge Europe into another general war.

Merely Bluffing?

Whether the Italian dictator is merely bluffing in the hope of frightening France and Britain away from the oil embargo, or whether he really is ready to go down fighting, was a question on which authoritative quarters here believed the general peace of Europe rested.

The state department viewed the situation with serious concern.

Unless something closely akin to a miraculous compromise solution, saving the face of Italy, the league and Ethiopia, is found quickly, it was feared Britain will be compelled by force of circumstances to move for imposition of the embargo.

Mussolini's bluff will then be called. Whether he decides to fight back with force or try and carry on his military campaign in Ethiopia with the oil reserves he possesses was the question on which the immediate peace of Europe was seen to rest.

Seek Compromise.

The view prevailed Britain and France would strive desperately within the next few days to find a compromise peace plan in order to avoid a show-down with the sabre-rattling dictator.

Meanwhile Uncle Sam today stripped the cloak of secrecy from the American arms traffic and moved to lay the activities of American munitions merchants open to the full glare of public scrutiny.

The licensing provision of the munitions control act became effective at midnight. From today on, every American company which manufactures a single implement of war must register with the state department and pay a $500 registration fee.

Furthermore, no American individual or firm will be permitted to ship a single bullet, rifle or other weapon of warfare outside the United States without a special export license from the secretary of state.

The name of every munitions manufacturer and complete details of the arms and munitions which he manufactures, as well as to whom he sells them, will be open to the public.

Statesmen didn't issue war bulletins in the old days, so it didn't matter if Washington couldn't lie.

Diplomat And Officer Tangle

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Town Officer Jake Biddle up in Elkton, Md., will think twice when he sees a diplomat's auto tag again and maybe even look the other way.

Wednesday he learned somewhat to his chagrin before a justice of the peace, that the nine-lettered word "diplomacy" is concealed in the eight-lettered word "diplomat."

Gaffar Djalal, minister of Iran (Persia) is the diplomat. He notified his secretary here from New York that he intends to make a formal complaint to the state department about the treatment Biddle directed toward him when he stopped his automobile on a speeding charge.

The minister denied he was abusive to the officer but Biddle contended the diplomat was so boisterious he had to handcuff him to another officer in taking him before the justice of the peace. There the minister's identity was established and he was released.

Foreign diplomats are immune from arrest in this country.

(International News Service)

MT. BLANCHARD, O., Nov. 29.—Two young bandits, armed with heavy revolvers, held up the Citizens bank here today and escaped with $1,833 in currency.

Twenty-four cars filled with Hancock county deputies, state highway police and police from nearby cities took up the chase and converged upon forest, where the gunmen were reported to have been seen.

New Dealer Has Oddest Report

Professor Turns Out Eighty-Page Document On Production Of Milk

IS WRITTEN IN HUMOROUS VEIN

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 S street

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The New Deal has turned out some good literature if it has done nothing else.

Government reports generally are dry reading but a fair share of the specialists whom the Roosevelt regime's alphabetical organizations have brought into the public service are professional writers, who know how to express themselves entertainingly as well as informatively.

For example, who would think that 80-odd typewritten pages could be produced on the subject of 'Milk'?—in a fashion to make it, not only interesting, but as humorous as Will Rogers or Mark Twain.

Yet if Prof. Walton H. Hamilton has not accomplished it, in an essay on that subject, prepared as a member of the consumers' division of NRA, I'm no judge of funny stuff.

A FEDERAL DOCUMENT

The professor appears to have been trying to prove nothing in particular, for or against the milk producer, the middleman, the consumer or anyone else; he simply is amiably chatty.

"The Bible," he says, "records a very high appreciation of milk. When Moses received his ancient land grant he reported that God had sworn to furnish a country 'overflowing with milk and honey.' . . . . The source of the milk seemed to have an important influence on the bravery or cowardice of the milk drinkers; Romulus and Remus got off to a good start by being suckled by a wolf, not a cow."

How's that for a federal document?

PRIMER ON COW

However, Professor Hamilton recognizes that wolf's milk no longer is in demand; that the demand even for goat's milk "is so small as to be unimportant."

"When we speak of milk," he observes, "we mean cow's milk. . . .

"It is hard to remember that the cow was not originally designed by nature to satisfy man's milk requirements. At one time she was an ordinary animal which lived, mated and brought up her children in blissful unawareness of her future appointment to a human office. . . .

"If we can judge from her imperturbability, her new responsibility does not rest too heavily upon her shoulders."

NOT MANY ELITE COWS

"There are now," proceeds the professor, "about 25,000,000 dairy cows in the United States.

"A very small number constitute the first families. A larger group boast of some marital connection with the elite. The vast majority are just ordinary cows, wtih few social ambitions and little opportunity to ascend the social ladder. . . .

"The ordinary cow has not begun to be tapped in her capacity of milk production. In 1934 the cow averaged about 4,000 pounds of milk . . . . but a bovine blueblood can produce seven or eight times that much. . . .

"For a small group of cows tecnnology has shown possibilities; for the great mass it hardly has touched the fringe."

STATISTICIAN STUMPED

"Of course," agrees Professor Hamilton, "human milk is infinitely preferable to any other milk for human babies.

"Surprisingly enough, very little is known about the amount of this delicacy consumed. The average healthy nursing mother can rise to a production of approximately three pints. But the variations are enormous, and no one seems to have any idea as to how many nursing mothers there are in the country. But, if this uncharted field still lies virgin to the aspiring statistician, at least we can say this:

"A lot of milk is directly produced by mothers and directly consumed by their offspring—and all lost to the statistician."

ANCESTORS STARTED SOMETHING!

"Our unknown ancestor, who fearfully and tentatively tried his hand at milking an animal, certainly never realized," surmises the professor, "that, out of his bright idea, would grow a tremendous dairy industry, an involved technology of breeding and pasture, and a population which considers the morning deliveries of cow's milk on its doorsteps as ordinary routine—or, incidentally, that he was allowing one-half of the population to lie down on its natural—if arduous—job of providing food for its babies."

Professor Hamilton, as a spokesman for the consumer, doesn't say a word concerning milk prices.

Milk, as a food, is the whole topic of his essay.

Ezra's Mission To Jerusalem

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Ezra 8:22—"The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him, for good."

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for December 1 is Ezra, chapters 7 and 8, the Golden Text being 8:22, "The hand of our God is upon all them that seek him, for good." To briefly summarize the whole ministry of Ezra we quote the chapter on Ezra from the author's Bible studies, "The Gist of the Bible Book by Book" by Dr. Alvin E. Bell, Toledo, Ohio, publisher.)

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

JEREMIAH phophesied the 70 years' captivity and the captives' return from Babylon. He did this by his parable of the vessel marred in the potter's hand, and related how "he made it again another vessel". The Book of Ezra shows the divine Potter remaking the Babylonian captives into a nation, giving them the gospel of the second chance to carry out His divine purposes. The book falls into two parts around its two great men. The first six chapters deal with the first return from captivity under Zerubbabel, and of his work of rebuilding the altar and temple of Jehovah. The last four chapters tell of a second group's return under Ezra, and of his prosecution of the work begun under Zerubbabel. Between chapters 6 and 7 there is a silent period of about 60 years.

Zerubbabel's Ministry

"The Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus, King of Persia", so the book begins, to make a proclamation, authorizing the return to Jerusalem of such captive Jews as desired to rebuild the house of Jehovah, and a remnant numbering fifty thousand, of whom nearly one-tenth were priests, returned under Zerubbabel. Their first care upon returning to the ruined city was to restore the altar and all the offerings and feasts which they had so shamefully neglected before the captivity. The foundations of the temple were laid amidst mingled weeping of the older generations who had seen the greater splendor of Solomon's temple, and the joyous shouting of the younger generation.

Ezra's Ministry

The second contingent of captives returned under the leadership of Ezra, the scribe, about 80 years after the return under Zerubbabel. Ezra stands out as a great man of faith, so sure of the protecting hand of God over that caravan of people and treasure, that he was ashamed to ask the king for a military guard after professing faith in the protecting hand of God. The condition Ezra found in Jerusalem among the Jews who had returned earlier was distressing. Thus Ezra took drastic measures to abate mixed marriages with idolotrous neighbors. And Israel was restored.

BEER GUZZLER GETS TOO HEAVY A LOAD

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29.—Albert Eppheimer thought he was having one on the house and naive as the thought was, it was really one on himself, for it brought about his arrest.

Eppheimer is said to have carried a case of beer from a restaurant to the basement, where he drank all he could hold. Then with two bottles of beer and a partly filled bottle of whisky in his pockets, he climbed the stairs and started out. The proprietor's "eagle eye" spotted him, however, and the police were called.

CONTROLLED RELIGION IS NOT AMERICAN

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29.—"The government of the United States gave the American churches a privilege it did not grant to any other social group."

On that score, Dr. Solomon B. Freehof, local Rabbi, called upon clergymen and church groups to abstain from political activities to protect the religious liberty provided in the constitution.

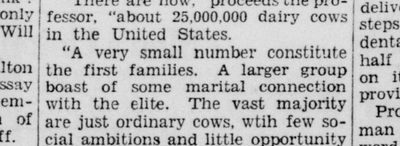

"It was written into the constitution that congress shall pass no law interfering with the free exercise of any religion. The government needs religion uncontrolled, and religion is expected not to attempt control of government.

FAT GIRLS GET THE GO-BY—SLIM GIRLS WIN MEN

Lose Fat The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diets, or Back-Breaking, Bending and Rolling Exercises.

There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right.

All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take on ugly fat. This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace.

Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same scientific method used by doctors. So why not lose fat the easy way—without starvation diets or back-breaking, bending and rolling exercises? Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get Marmola today from druggists.

Christmas Seals Placed In Mails

Little Messages Of Christmas Cheer Are Sent To Lawrence County Residents

SALE ACTIVELY OPENS THURSDAY

Six thousand five hundred letters, containing the Christmas Seals of the Anti-Tuberculosis society were placed in the mails in Lawrence county Wednesday and by this evening will be in the hands of most of the residents of the community.

The annual Christmas Seal sale lasts from Thanksgiving to Christmas, and the return this year is expected to be greater than it has been for several years past, due to the improvement in general business conditions.

The Christmas Seal is sold to defray the expenses of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, in its battle against tuberculosis, and every penny expended could not be put to a better use, as the funds derived from these annual campaigns have reduced the spread of this once-dreaded disease tremendously.

W. P. A. WORKERS FIND SKELETONS

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG—When shovels of workers in a WPA road gang in Somerset county struck human bones several days ago, mild excitement spread through members of the small force on the banks of the Youhiogheny river near Springfield.

Their consternation was short lived for the bones were soon identified as Indian skeletons probably 1500 years old.

Two road workers had spent the summer working on a nearby site of an old fortified Indian village being excavated as a relief project under the direction of Donald A. Cadzow, State archaeologist. They recognized the significance of the find; road building was detoured around the spot, and Cadzow was notified.

"That's a real co-operation in PWA projects," said the state archaeologist who brought experienced workers from the Indian village site to remove two Indian skeletons and investigate the site for additional clues, as to the life and habits of Pennsylvania's earliest inhabitants.

LINCOLN-ZEPHYR

THE FORD AND LINCOLN TWELVE-CYLINDER VALUE AT MEDIUM PRICE

BORN in the Lincoln tradition, bearing the Lincoln name, the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR brings to the medium-price field traditional Ford-Lincoln standards of value. Built in its own specially equipped division of the Lincoln plant, famous for precision workmanship, this new car reflects the combined Ford-Lincoln engineering experience, manufacturing ability and economic resources.

Powered with a 110-horsepower 12-cylinder engine of the V-type, the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR provides performance of a high order, combined with unusual economy. The wide, roomy body, on a wheelbase of 122 inches with springbase of 133 inches, has ample room for six passengers and luggage. The spare wheel is carried concealed under the rear deck.

At first glimpse the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR will give you a new concept of beauty. Here a motor car's form is determined logically by a motor car's function. Streamlines flow, uninterrupted, from bow to stern, from side to side; and every line satisfies the eye.

But the beauty of the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR carries a significance larger than any style trend. It reflects new principles of design. Just as trusses of steel make possible the bridge, light in weight but great in strength, steel trusses underlie the curves of this new car. Body and frame are one, welded together.

The great safety provided by this modern construction is enhanced by ease of handling and control. On all types of roads, under all conditions of travel, the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR conveys the feeling of safety because of its low center of gravity and correct distribution of weight.

PRICED FROM $1275 F. O. B. DETROIT

Lincoln Zephyr V-12

AVAILABLE IN TWO SEDAN BODY TYPES

Convenient, economical terms through the Authorized Finance Plans of the Universal Credit Company

Inherent in the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR, too, is a new rhythm of motoring. Many persons have remarked that the back seat is as comfortable as the front, and that the car rides as gently with one passenger as with six. Soft transverse springs minimize jounces, jolts, bumps—"up-and-down" motions that tire the motorist. With its alert and responsive V-12 cylinder motor, this car glides over all kinds of road surfaces without transmitting their shocks to driver or passengers.

For all its forward-reaching design, the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR contains nothing experimental. It has been tested more rigorously by Lincoln engineers than it could be by owners. Working parts are easy of access. Basic design and details of construction make the new car economical to operate.

Plan to inspect the LINCOLN-ZEPHYR today. Discover, for yourself, the new concept of beauty... the new rhythm of motoring.

RICHMAN BROTHERS

FINE CLOTHES MAKERS SINCE 1879

OVERCOATS, SUITS, TUXEDOS $22.50

PLEASED CUSTOMERS

The whole secret of Richman Brothers' success in the clothes making business can be summed up in two words... satisfied customers.

From the time we began to make clothes... away back in 1879, satisfied customers, rather than one-time sales, has been our aim, and it still is.

Sounds simple. But look at the clothiers who've come and gone, just because they didn't satisfy their customers.

We do it because we make our own clothes. We personally select our fabrics. Our workmanship is under our own eyes. We watch every piece of goods, every thread, every stitch.

We sell our clothes in our own stores. There is no middleman between you and us to charge a second profit. We have no wholesale selling expense. We have no credit losses. We have no delivery expenses.

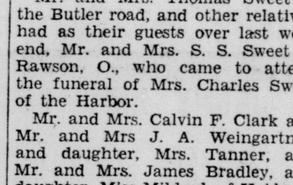

But let the clothes tell the story. Our suits, overcoats, tuxedos (including dress vest) and formal evening clothes, are all $22.50.

Italy Shows Some Concern On U.S. Policy

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Italy today voiced renewed concern to the state department over this government's determined policy to curb American trade with the Italian nation.

This attitude was made known by Italian Ambassador Augusto Rosso to Assistant Secretary of State R. Walton Moore, who is in charge of the legal aspects of the government's neutrality policy.

Both the Italian envoy and the state department were disinclined to discuss the conversation.

Following the ambassador's visit, it was learned, however, that Italy questioned whether the American neutrality policy represents a completely neutral stand on the part of this government.

The Italian government is particularly concerned over the extent to which this government intends to go in shutting off the shipment of American oil to Italy in the event the league of nations imposes an oil and steel embargo.

However, Ambassador Rosso did not emphasize this point so much today, but rather dealt in general with the American neutrality policy.

Plan To Increase City Paid Firemen

Davies Introduces Bill To Increase Fire Department Quota

During cuncil meeting at the city building today Safety Director D. O. Davies submitted a bill increasing the number of paid firemen in the city. The number to which the department will be increased was left blank. There now are 42 paid firemen. The number includes the chief and assistant chief.

Davies said the contemplated ordinance is due to the fect that the state law makes it compulsory that each fireman receive a day's rest in seven and that the department, when this law is obeyed, will require additional men.

Family Troubles Aired In Court

Judges R. L. Hildebrand And James A. Chambers Hear 39 Divorce Cases

Twenty-nine divorce cases were on the docket for hearing when Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers opened divorce court this morning. The list was about evenly divided between the two judges.

In most cases only the libellants and their witnesses appeared. The majority of the charges were for desertion and cruel and barbarous treatment.

The testimony was very much the same, consisting of tales of neglect and abuse. In come cases the couples had lived together only a few months; in others, for many years.

The libellants in 26 of the cases were wives, and in 13, husbands. In the cases of the husbands, desertion was the main charge. Desertion was also principal charge by most of the wives. Some charged both cruelty and desertion.

Lists of the cases which were before court today was published in The News this week. The court will not hand down decisions until the testimony is prepared by the stenographers.

Reports Coming In On Roll Call

Present Indications Point To Fact That Goal Will Not Be Attained

Reports are now being received from both the city and county districts on the Roll Coll which was brougth to an end Thanksgiving Day by the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, and while the returns as yet are incomplete, indications point to the fact that the goal of $4,500 which was set for the Roll Call, will not be attained by a large figure.

While most of the county reports have not as yet been received, it will take a tremendous effort on their part to make up the deficiency noted in the city, where approximately $1,750 has been reported.

Firemen And Police Request Higher Wages

Ask Council To Restore Wage Schedules To Level Before Reductions Were Made

Representatives of the city police and fire departments met informally with councilmen today in city hall where M. J. Young, delegate of the police and Frank Sargent, delegate of the firemen, requested council to restore the wages of the men of both departments. During the last several years the wage of the firemen and police were decreased from $150.00 to $121.50 per month.

Emanuel Shenkan, Wyatt Campbell and William Nunn spoke in favor of the restoration.

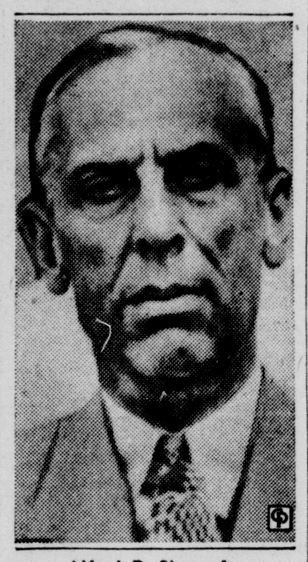

Finance Director A. A. Hoyland said that while the city's financial condition compared to other cities, is good the city had had to issue negotiable paper duirng the last few months of the past several years as part salary to city employes.

The requests will be considered further when the 1936 budget is compiled.

Many Have Aided With Christmas Seal Sale In City

Church Organizations And Auxiliaries Placed Seals In Envelopes

THE TOWNSMEN ARE SPONSORS

Many New Castle residents have aided in the annual preparations for the Christmas seal sale by the Lawrence County Anti-Tuberculosis Society, which is now actively under way.

Various church groups and auxiliaries helped with the tremendous task of counting the seals and placing them in the envelopes in which they have been delivered to 6,500 residents of New Castle and Lawrence county.

Men Sponsor Sale

The Townsmen, a group of the younger business men of the city, who were formerly known as the Phalanx Club, and who have been actively identified with various civic projects during the past few years, are sponsoring the sale.

They have had a large thermometer constructed and placed in one of the display windows of the Pennsylvania Power Company, where the receipts from the sale of the seals will be shown as it progresses during the course of the effort from November 30 to December 25.

The committee which is representing The Townsmen in this effort is composed of Alfred H. Owens, chairman; John Hodge, John Boston, Dean Staley, Chris Clark, Bob Hoose, Lindy Bruce, A. Bruce Ewing and Jack Huston.

NAVAL NOTES

By M. L. NIXON
Naval Recruiter, Second Floor Federal Building

The English word "cruiser" is derived from "crusal" or fast, light vessel used by pirates in the Mediterranean. The American Navy has two types of cruisers at the present time, heavy and light. The heavy cruisers are of the U. S. S. Chicago type, displacing about 10,000 tons and have as an armament 8-inch guns. The light cruisers are of the U. S. S. Detroit type, displacing about 7,500 tons and carry 6-inch guns as the primary battery. Both of the foregoing types of cruisers are capable of making approximately 32 knots or 36 land miles per hour.

One of the navy's oil tankers that is used for transporting fuel oil to the ships serving on the China seas recently reported to the Navy Department a new ocean depth sounding of 34,620 feet in a position 250 miles south of Japan; the second greatest ocean depth ever recorded.

The greatest naval battle of the World war was fought off Jutland and began on the 31st of May, 1916. Germany lost eleven ships and 2,863 officers and men. The British lost fourteen ships and 6,617 officers and men.

In 1820, naval vessels were ordered to capture slave bearing ships where ever found, and a bounty of twenty-five dollars a head was ordered for the capture of every slave on board.

FISHERMAN'S STRANGE CATCH OF "COINS"

(International News Service)

COLOGNE, Nov. 29.—A fisherman's strange "catch" of coins worth about $200 led to the arrest here of eight men. A man was fishing in the Rhine when he had a very firm bite. On reeling in he saw he had "caught" a heavy brown paper parcel. He opened it and found 85 mark pieces. He handed these over at once to the police who discovered that they were counterfeit coins. As a result a gang of five has been arrested on forgery charges together with three alleged utterers of the counterfeit coins.

That is, America should not risk selling anything to belligerents except the stuff you produce.

MY NEW YORK

By JAS. ASWELL

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Randomusing: Now the tables are being turned on Hollywood. . . . The supply of personable young ladies is not what it used to be in the metropolitan area, although to date no processing taxes have sharpened the dilemma. . . . From backstage at the new "Ziegfeld Follies" in rehearsal comes word that a scout was dispatched to the West coast and he has duly corralled 50 cuties out of the Eddie Cantor picture, "Shoot the Chutes." . . .

Peter Arno's new volume of daubs is his chuckliest yet. . . . Trivial thought: no man looks as dignified as Al Smith in a cutaway or as homey without. . . . The Henry Luces (she was Clare Booth Brokaw, purple-blooded scribbler, and he's the editor of Time) are as romantic as an orange blossoms sprig honeymooning hereabout, yet they are starting married life with a family readymade. . . . He has two children and she one, a daughter 12. . . .

H. L. Mencken is terrified by germs and washes his hands up to 20 times a day. . . . I am told that one of the toughest cops in a waterfront section of Brooklyn wears a carnation and spats on his day off. . . . Freddie Bartholomew will play Little Lord Fauntleroy on the screen minus the curls so long associated with the character. . . I wonder what Reginald Birch, who illustrated the Frances Hodgson Burnett classic, will think of the flicker version? . . . There's a hint for metropolitan city editors when the film is shown here. . . .

Dr. Will Durant, the science-in-a-nutshell professor, has become a foreign tour conductor deluxe. . . . He is now bubbling with plans to conduct a flock to Greece, Palestine, Egypt and Italy next summer. . . . Carl Van Vechten, I am told, has definitely abandoned writing for professional photography, which he says is much more fun. . . . Suggestion for visitors: that exhibition of miniature camera pictures in Rockefeller Center now in progress. . .

The dime stores now vend the national soups: French, Polish, Russian and Italian. . . . Such a contrast between the brothers Barrymore, John and Lionel. . . . Jim Cagney is another Hollywoodenite in flight from the flickers: he is headed for membership in the Irish Players of Dublin. . . . Awed note: one of the fashionable Fifth Avenue shops is featuring red woolen underwear for the ladies. . . . Clemence Dane, the playwright, is famous in London for her sculpture and an art paper there recently commented; "She writes plays as a hobby." . . . Remembering the Billy Rose extravaganza, "Jumbo," it all jells into one astonishing vignette of Paul Whiteman riding about the stage on a white horse as he leads his orchestra on a balcony. . . . Whiteman after a period of slipping a few years back played the Palace and was held over to a tumultuous second and third week. . . . His meteor has been crowding the horizon ever since.

Selassie can't be a real Christian ruler. He says there is no truth in the lies told about his enemy.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

SEEK SUPERIOR LINE OF CATTLE

Some dairymen who are members of the Lawrence County Cow Testing association are included in the 300 dairymen in Pennsylvania who are cooperating with the Pennsylvania agricultural extension service and the United States Department of Agriculture Dairy Bureau in an extensive search of superior blood lines in herds of Pennsylvania dairy cattle.

Pennsylvania has hundreds of dairy cattle herds about which records of milk production for each individual cow have been continuously kept for five to 15 or more years. These records have been carefully supervised through cow testing association, official testing and breed herd tests and provide opportunity for studying the effect of breeding practices or the succession of sires used on different farms on milk production.

It has long been known that sires often affect the herds in which they are used. Some sires produce daughters that are uniformly better in milk production than their dams; others have daughters distinctly inferior. Still others have a few good offspring but the majority poor. In many herds a study of dam-daughter comparisons in milk and butterfat production shows that some good sires and some poor sires have been used resulting in but little or no progress in milking ability and giving the herd a mixed inheritance for those important characters of type and milk production that effect dairymen's profits.

Dairymen are primarily dependent for their success upon a high milking ability in their herds and upon their ability to maintain or increase the milking ability of their cows in successive generations through breeding. There are few dependable sources to which dairymen may look with certainty for a sire that will increase milk production or maintain the high production already realized in his herd.

The search is to discover herds where a succession of three or more sires have been used, each of which has transmitted to his daughters a uniformly high milk producing ability. In such herds there has developed, through the years, a concentration of superior blood lines, or superior germ plasm, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Purchase of sires from such herds should reduce the great hazard in dairy cattle breeding now existing when a new herd sire is bought.

The results will be in the next annual year book of the United States Department of Agriculture. It is expected that each cooperating dairyman will receive an analysis of his own herd.

CHECK PULLETS WEIGHT THE FIRST LAYING YEAR

Pullets should gain in weight during the first laying year. Some poultrymen make a practice of marking a few pullets and then weighing these same birds every week or two through the fall months to keep a check on the bird's weight. Others just catch a few of the birds occasionally and handle them for weight and amount of flesh on the breast bone. If one has occasion to go into the hen house at night after the birds are on the perches, that is also a good time to check on the bird's weight and condition. Another good time to note the amount of flesh on the breast is while removing the eggs from underneath the pullets in the nests.

If the pullets lose weight, there is a good possibility of them going into a molt. To maintain body weight or to increase it, feed more to the birds. Give all the scratch feed the birds will eat at night and about one half that amount in the morning. Keep dry mast before the birds at all times. Filling the feeders with fresh mash each day will encourage greater mash intake than when the feeders are filled once or twice a week. Stirring up the mash in the feeders occasionally also helps.

Giving a fleshing feed each day at noon also will encourage birds to eat more. A common mixture for this purpose is made up of equal parts by weight of yellow corn meal, ground rolled oats and condensed milk. Feed at the rate of three pounds per 100 birds per day. The heavier the birds are laying the more total feed they will require.

The use of lights in the hen house to lengthen the working day of the birds will increase feed intake. A 13 or 14-hour day will meet the requirements of the average flock.

GOOD STORAGE NECESSARY FOR BEST SEED POTATOES

Potato growers should remember that the condition of seed at planting time next spring will play a big part in the amount of seed required to plant an acre, the kind of a stand they get, and is reflected in the vigor of the crop thus affecting the yield.

Following harvest the greatest hazard to seed potatoes is frost injury in storage. Each year a large quantity of otherwise good seed is permanently injured this way. Many times this freezing is done during the first real cold spell before the grower has properly buried the pit or insulated the storage bin from freezing temperatures.

Constant or regular ventilation is important in the storage of seed immediately following digging, but such ventilation becomes less important as the season advances. Authorities agree that litle ventilation is needed in the storage of seed during the winter and spring. Particularly damp cellars require more ventilation to reduce excess moisture caused by condensation.

Extremely damp cellars, where the potatoes are often wet, result in greater rot or decay. Extremely dry cellars cause shrivelling of the tubers and loss of vitality. The ideal temperature for seed storage is around 34 to 38 degrees F. Lower temperatures may not actually freeze the tubers but may injure the young sprouts and lower the vitality. Higher temperatures increase shrivelling and cause heavy sprouting and loss of vitality.

When purchasing new seed growers should have reason to believe that the seed has been well stored and that it comes from disease-free productive stock.

CHOOSE USEFUL THINGS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

What shall I give for Christmas? Probably the most impotrant rule is give something useful, as well as beautiful. Too many odds and ends are given which turn out to be "white elephants", says Miss Mary Vogle, home economics representative.

Every woman likes dainty neckwear, and who does not possess a dress which needs just that tonic to prolong its usefulness? There are many designs for bib neckwear, tailored and otherwise, which will transform an old dress, or look well with a suit. They are made of any type of material from gingham to lame cloth. Choose the design which best suits the person who will wear it. It may be tailored or soft and fluffy.

Blouses are important gifts.

What girl or woman would not be pleased to receive a dainty bed jacket? A simple cape pattern may be used to make an attractive but inexpensive one of rose pink cotton voile, with cream lace trim. Or the jacket type of wool challis or flannel may be preferred.

Lingerie of all kinds is always useful including nightgowns, pajamas, pantie and brassiere sets, negligees and slips.

And did you ever know anyone who couldn't use some kind of an apron or smock?

From the accessories list, there are purses, scarfs and handkerchiefs to choose between.

For the knitter, attractive knitting bags are easily made—also sewing bags.

Equipment for the clothes closet includes laundry bags, dress bags, covers for dresses on hangers, envelope cases for handkerchiefs or gloves.

For one who travels occasionally, the envelope shoe bag may be made of cotton print, bound with harmonizing or matching binding. These are especially useful to the college girl.

Bridge or luncheon sets are not new—but always welcome gifts.

Patterns are available for the much loved stuffed animals. The "gingham dog and the calico cat" are not a bit difficult to make and how the children love them.

JACOB F. PERELMAN

On Court House Hill

County Commissioner-elect, Joseph Hannon, visited officially at the court house on Wednesday. Mr. Hannon, who was commissioner once before, will enter office with a good working knowledge of his duties.

County commissioners will open bids on an automobile for the sheriff on December 6. The car is not to cost over $1000 and there must be a trade allowance for the 1933 model now used by the sheriff.

County Treasurer William O. Pitts expects to be able to tell the amount of 1935 delinquent taxes by the end of this week. His clerks have been busy getting the duplicates ready for the delinquent collectors.

A majority of the deer hunters who will leave next Monday, will carry side arms, according to County Treasurer, William O. Pitts, who now has authority to issue permits to carry revolvers. A side arm is handy in case a deer wants to kiss you after you have missed shooting it with a rifle.

When the late R. M. Leslie was county commissioner he bought timothy and clover seed and went out on the New Wilmington and other roads and sowed it himself along the sides of the road in order to form a sod that would not wash into the gutters. The WPA workers are now digging the sod up and time is expected to tell whether it is better to have road berms of sod or mud.

The argument list for the December term of common pleas court is the shortest in many years, there being only five cases listed by Prothonotary R. M. Campbell. They are: White Sewing Machine company against Carrie Poister, demurrer to statement of claim; Lawrence Savings and Trust company against Celia Rabinovits, executrix motion to strike off judgment; Ellwood City Borough against Julia Vogt; The Weideman Company against O. C. Elliott, rule to quash attachment, and First National bank of New Wilmington against Carrie D. Getty, motion for judgment for defendant. The short list of cases for argument is a good indication that Judges R. L. Hildebrand and James A. Chambers have the court docket pretty well cleaned up.

Expense accounts of candidates at the recent election are still being filed. Thomas McCullough, candidate for county assessor in the Third ward; Raymond Dallenbach, for justice of the peace in Wayne township, and Thomas J. Newton, for county assessor in Ellwood show that they spent less than fifty dollars on their campaigns. Account of County Commissioner-elect, Joseph Hannon, shows that he spent $270.25.

Newly elected county officials are beseiged by the usual number of applicants for jobs. So far no indication has been given as to what changes, if any, will be made.

Among the many puzzling problems to be presented to the coming special session of the state legislature is the matter of taxes. There won't be much effort to cut down expenses. This would be a too easy solution, but there is certain to be efforts made to tax everything down to the air you breathe. The halt of Federal funds for direct relief, if it becomes an assured fact, will result in general tax advances in state, city and county taxing units. It is said that an effort will be made to put over a sales tax and a bitter fight is expected.

NEW CASTLE HIGH DEFEATS SHARON 6 TO 0

Holiday Game Is Bitterly Fought

Domenick "Gabby" DeCaprio Scores Lone Touchdown In Game

New Castle Closes Season With Ten Victories, Toscano Stars

NEW CASTLE High School "Red Hurricane" football team ended the 1935 season at Taggart Stadium yesterday afternoon with a 6 to 0 victory over a scrappy Sharon High eleven. A Thanksgiving Day crowd that numbered close to 8,000 watched the game. Domenick "Gabby" DeCaprio dove over for the lone touchdown of the game in the first period. Harry "Kaiser" Toscano, played his final game and was one of the outstanding stars of the battle.

The first down score just about tells the story of what kind of a battle it was. New Castle having seven first and tens, and Sharon having four. For the final three periods of the game the two fine teams battled back and forth over a slippery field, with Sharon High coming close to scoring in the second period.

Sharon Hurled Back

So close in fact was Sharon to the New Castle goal line that it looked for a time as if Jack Diven the big Sharon fullback was over the line, but Referee Fawcett said no, and that was that. It was one of those "Horatio at the Bridge" stands by that gallant hard fighting "Red Hurricane" line. It was first and ten Sharon on the 1-yard line after Klaric rifled a pass to Seaman. Three times Seaman and Diven tried to crash through that wall of human resistance and failed, then Klaric passed over the goal line, but it was knocked down by Dal Mumford.

DeCaprio Scores

New Castle's score resulted from a steady march down the field from the 50-yard line. The game opened with Sharon kicking off to New Castle, after a few plays Johnnie Cabas kicked back to Sharon over goal line. It was Sharon's ball on their own 20. Ogg booted back to New Castle on the New Castle 48. Three plays by the Bridenbaughmen and Cabas again kicked over the goal line. Sharon tried one play and Ogg kicked back to New Castle on the 50-yard line.

Robert "Flash" Engs picked up 25 yards on a nice end run play to the Sharon 25. Cox made three at tackle and Engs picked up another yard. DeCaprio broke through center for a ten yard gain and it gave New Castle a first down on the Sharon 9 yard line. New Castle drew a 5 yard penalty. DeCaprio picked up nine yards and Engs made two. DeCaprio carried the ball to the one-foot line, and on the next play dove over for the only touchdown of the game. Toscano failed to kick the extra-point.

The remainder of the first period was fought in the middle of the field. The only exciting moments of the second period was that long pass by Sharon that took the ball down to the 1-yard line, where the Orangemen failed to score. The first half ended 6 to 0 with New Castle leading.

Players Removed

With a six-point lead the New Castle team was content to let Sharon do most of the playing, and consequently Cabas and Mumford were kept quite busy punting the ball. A little fisticuff work by Andy Seamon of Sharon with Paulie Small of New Castle on the receiving end was the chief exciting moment of the third period. Referee Fawcett ordered both Seaman and Small out of the game. This hurt Sharon as Seaman was one of the best players on the field.

Sharon started another rally that ended with the whistle for the third period by passing for a first down and ten on the New Castle 20. A bad pass from center at the start of the fourth period and Sharon lost the ball on the New Castle 40-yard line with Nocera, the New Castle right end pouncing on the ball.

Protect Lead.

For the final two periods neither team threatened to score. As said before New Castle was protecting that six-point lead by kicking at every opportunity, and Sharon was desperate for a score and tried many passes. Three of the Sharon first downs came on forward passes. Sharon's offensive threat was halted cold by the New Castle linemen led by Frank "Tarzan" Crisci, playing his final game for New Castle. He was one of the real stars of the engagement. Charley Probst played a whale of a game at right tackle.

Field Slippery.

The New Castle running attack was not quite up to par yesterday, but this was partly due to the condition of the field. A steady morning rain made the footing precarious. A wet slippery ball didn't mean much to the teams when it came to tossing forwards. A check-up shows that 21 passes were thrown—five by New Castle and 16 by Sharon.

New Castle drew a flock of penalties—to be exact, the locals were penalized a total of 55 yards—while Sharon did not draw a penalty.

Tenth Victory.

It was the tenth victory of the year for the Bridenbaughmen, and the second defeat of the year for the Sharon team. Rayen high of Youngstown was the only other team to upset Sharon. Charleroi tied New Castle for the only blemish on the 1935 record.

The following young men played their last game yesterday: Toscano, and what a whale of a game this youngster played. He was all over the field making tackle after tackle; Frank "Tarzan" Crisci, the left tackle, who was one of the stars of the game; Filbert "Midget" Nocera, the stellar right end, who was injured; Johnnie Cabas, who started the game at quarter and who played a fine game until relieved by Dal Mumford. Others who will be missing next year but who did not get in the game are: Krezo, an end, and Bloise, a guard. Eddie Donegan, injured star halfbck, was at the game in a wheel chair. He will also be missing next year. Malley also will be missing next year.

Fine Gesture By "Kaiser" Toscano

Harry "Kaiser" Toscano, New Castle High left end, played his final game of his scholastic career yesterday afternoon, and what a great game he played. Toscano was captain of the "Red Hurricanes." He would naturally have been given the football that was used in the game yesterday as a souvenir.

But—Toscano, very graciously declined the coveted pigskin and walking over to Eddie Donegan, in a wheel-chair, sitting idly by, with tears in his eyes, said, "Here, Eddie old boy, is the football, you keep it."

Donegan would have played his last game yesterday, were it not for the fractured vertebra suffered in the game at New Kensington.

Football Season To End Saturday

Army And Navy Will Play At Philadelphia, Princeton To Meet Yale

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—With only one or two informal and unimportant appearances scheduled for succeeding Saturday, king football of 1935 tomorrow makes his final bow before the American sporting public

In a game which will in all probability decide Stanford's Rose bowl opponent, Southern Methodist pits its unbeaten aggregation against the equally unsullied warriors of Texas Christian. Rated off its lop-sided victory over U. C. L. A. Southern Methodist looms as the winners.

Some 90,000 of the faithful are expected to be on hand for the Army-Navy battle at Philadelphia which the Cadets figured to cop.

Princeton, invading the Yale Bowl at New Haven glorified as the East's only major unbeaten, untied eleven was favored to continue its streak at the expense of a willing, but less competent, Eli squad.

Tulane plays Louisiana State at New Orleans. In other games, Holy Gross was favored over Boston College, Georgia over Georgia Tech, Dartmouth over Columbia, Georgetown over Western Maryland, Mississippi State over Mississippi, Auburn over Florida, U. C. L. A. over Idaho, and Rice over Baylor.

New Wilmington To Open Season

(Special To The News)

The high school team will be led by Kermit Patton, senior forward and captain of this year's outfit, who will be backed by Paul Means, forward, Sid Verrier or Bob Calhoun, center, and George Axe and Bob White, gards.

"Susie" Gilliland, former high school star, is acting as coach for the alumni team which will be composed of Bob Eagleson, Russell Minner, Harve Mercer, Bill Hart, Joe Ferris, Bob McCaslin and Lloyd Lee.

Schmeling May Meet Braddock

Madison Square Garden Offers Maxie Schmeling Bout With Champ

By WALTER DIETZEL

BREMERHAVEN, Germany, Nov. 29.—Madison Square Garden has offered Max Schmeling a bout with Cnampion Jimmy Braddock—and he doesn't have to fight Joe Louis or anybody else to get it.

That is what the German heavyweight told International News Service today as he sailed from here with his trainer, Max Machon, aboard the Bremen for New York. He plans to attend the Paolino Uzcudun-Joe Louis fight December 13, however, so that he can get "a fairly good idea of my chances against Louis."

Free To Fight

"I am free to fight anyone, including Braddock, with whom Madison Square Garden has offered me a bout," he said. "I cannot reveal the financial details at present, but the rumor that Madison Square is willing to ring me against Braddock only, if I first eliminate Joe Louis is untrue."

Mike Jacobs negotiated a fight against Louis," he added, "but he lost interest when I insisted on financial safeguards. It seems Louis figures he can bide his time and make hay by accepting a great many opponents before risking Braddock.

"Well, I can wait, too."

"I will say this," he continued, "I am not afraid of Joe Louis. I will fight him any time things can be arranged."

Army And Navy Ready For Game At Philadelphia

Quaker City Is Alive With Football Fans And Service Men Today

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.— The "old Army game" had this once-peaceful Quaker capital in a turmoil today.

With more than 24 hours to go before the referee's whistle lifts the curtain on the 1935 Army-Navy football classic in Franklin field, tickets are already scarcer than hens' teeth and twice as hard to find.

The ticket quest has become a mad and feverish scramble as every passing hour makes the search all the more impossible. By cattle-car, parlor-car, coach, afoot and on roller-skates, grid fans from all over the country continue to pour into the city.

Hotels Jammed

Hotels are jammed to the proverbial rafters. Railroad terminials echo to the rhythm of hundreds of marching feet. The streets are laden with hundreds of alien cars, as traffic-policemen battle in vain to handle the unaccustomed crush.

And while the city itself hums, hoots and searches frantically for the ever-elusive pasteboards, 33 solemn-eyed, purposeful cadets are encamped in nearby Green Hill farms. In startling contrast to the upheaval taking place in the town proper, there all is peace and quiet, and, Withall, a bit tense.

The Army eleven has been installed as a slight favorite over their sea-going rivals. But favorites don't count in this game. Anything and everything is liable to happen when 22 helmeted stalwarts march onto the field for the honor of their respective branch of service.

The Navy team is expected here late today.

Fordham Drops New York U. In Upset Game 21-0

Colgate Smothers Brown, Vanderbilt Topples Alabama Team

NEBRASKA-OREGON GAME IS 26 To 20

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—"Am I out of the game?"

"Yes, son—definitely out!"

Thus stocky little Amerino Sarno, Fordham left tackle, ruled from the field early in the second period of the game in which the Maroon trounced N. Y. U. yesterday 21 to 0, following his fistic set-to with Perry Geffen, Violet right tackle.

And thus—equally definitely—was the once-proud N. Y. U. football team ruled out of any consideration as the east's representative in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

Undefeated and untied until yesterday, the Violets approached the season wind-up against their arch metropolitan rivals with eyes bedimmed by visions of Rose Bowl glory.

Rams Score Early.

In less than five minutes after the opening kick-off, the ephemeral vision turned into a nightmare when the favored Rams swept 62 yards in three plays to shove over their first touchdown. Then, adding insult to injury, the insolent Ram, aided and abetted by a poor N. Y. U. kick, a 15-yard penalty for roughness, and the plunging skill of John Gallivan, sub fullback, tramped 40 yards for another score within the ensuing six minutes.

That Andy Palau, Fordham's omni-present defender and omnipoent blocker, intercepted a Violet pass in the fourth quarter and set the stage for Fordham's third touchdown—was merely incidental. The game was won and lost within the short space of the game's first 11 minutes.

Aside from the technicalities of the fray, the contest's most exciting moments came early in the second stanza. Five thousand fans rocked the Yankee stadium in a frenzy of excitement when Sarno suddenly flailed Geffen with his fists. The Violet tackle was quick to retaliate, and within a moment the gridiron seethed with the excitement of a general melee. More than a dozen policemen were required to restore order.

Colgate Wins.

In a game steeped in the tradition of 27 years, Colgate visited Providence and overwhelmed a plucky Brown eleven 33 to 0, to tally the most one-sided triumph ever accomplished in the ancient rivalry.

Syracuse made a journey to Baltimore in what proved to a vain attempt to teach the Maryland team a football lesson. The contest ended in a scoreless tie before a handful of rain-soaked die-hards. Not far afield, however, in Washington, an inspired Catholic university team did teach southern gridders a lesson when the Catholics amazed the North Carolina Cardinals to the tune of an 8-0 anthem.

Alabama Loses.

Vanderbilt, in the south, provided one of the major surprises of the day's activities by besting a favored Alabama squad, 14-6, as Kentucky ran true to form in rolling over Tennessee, 27 to 0.

The middle west's football dish provided a particularly luscious gridiron morsel in a give and take highly rousing contest between Nebraska and Oregon State, with the Nebraskans ringing the welkin, 26 to 20.

First Baptists To Meet Tonight

The First Baptist team will play the First Christians tonight at the "Y" in the church league and Coach "Bud" Hanlon would like to have the following men report at the "Y" at 7:30 o'clock: Archie Ridley, Russ Battley, Nickie Ross, Clare Wallace, George Adams, Jack Nygard, Willie Grommes, Dick Evans, Robert Martakkala and Jack "What-A-Man" Lewellyn.

Polish Falcons Card Shamrocks

The Polish Falcons basketball team will play the Shamrocks at the Falcon Hall on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be a preliminary game between the Polish Falcon Juniors and a fast junior team starting at 1:30 o'clock. This will be the first game of the season for the Falcons under Coach Marion Kolodjeski.

Pitt And State Will Play Game Next Turkey Day

State Resumes Thanksgiving Day Spot On Pitt Panther Grid Card

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29.— Penn State's Nittany Lions will once more resume their place on the Pitt schedule as the traditional Thanksgiving day foe, replacing Carnegie Tech, in 1937, it was announced today by Clarence Overend, Tech graduate manager.

Officials of both Pitt and Tech decided against staging the intercity battle on Thanksgiving day because most students are away from the city for the holiday. The last Saturday in October was set as the tentative date for the Pitt and Tech struggle beginning in 1937.

"Carnegie has found the holiday unsatisfactory for numerous reasons," Overend said. We want the Pitt game to be our homecoming attraction but that is obviously impossible on Thanksgiving day when most of the alumni want to be in their homes. Pitt assured us that we could have the turkey day date as long as we wished but they have a chance to put Penn State back on the holiday when they always used to meet so we were glad to give up the date for the 1937 season."

Throbbing State Football Season Is Brought To End

Bucknell Turns Tables On Temple, Penn Smothers Cornell Team

By VICTOR J. JACOBS
International News Service Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 29.—Sport fans basked today in memories of the 1935 Pennsylvania football season—a campaign brought to a throbbing finish by a handful of State College Thanksgiving Day.

From the very beginning the season has been one of continual upsets and the concluding chapter was no exception. Two of the major battles saw the dope pail given another kick as underdog teams thwarted victory efforts of the favorites.

In one of these, a courageous Carnegie Tech eleven climbed to soaring heights behind a heads-up playing line and fine punting of quarterback Spisak to carve a moral victory for itself by holding Pitt to a 0-0 standstill in the 22nd annual battle. It was the first measure of success the Tartans had realized in that rivalry since 1928.

Bucknell Wins

Bucknell turned in its second successive upset when it defeated the favored Temple university Owls 7-6 in a hammer-and-tong struggle. The Bisons who only began to click in the latter half of the current season and blanked Penn State 2-0 last Saturday, matched Temple play for play in winning.

The Quakers of Pennsylvania U. rolled over Cornell and the slush and mud of Franklin field to a 33-7 victory, to close their campaign with four wins and as many losses. Cornell did not win a game all season.

Grid Officials Busy Thursday

New Castle football officials were busy Thanksgiving Day. Sam Richards worked the Rochester and Beaver game, while Ray Nolte and Dave Hoskins handled the Beaver Falls and New Brighton game at Beaver Falls.

Massed Bands Share Program At Stadium Thanksgiving Day

New Castle High School closed its football season Thursday, but in the closing of the season it cemented closer together the cordial relations between the local school and Sharon High School. It was a typical New Castle-Sharon tussle, close as a week end shave all the way through but providing some stellar football without any of the unpleasantness that some games have engendered.

Sharon brought its band down and for the first time used its new uniforms, striking orange coats with black trousers down which an orange stripe ran. Flashy they were, and jauntly worn by the Sharon musicians. Hussar style caps set off the combination and the new uniforms will bring Sharon plenty of notice before they are discarded.

Speeches Also

There were speeches too at the Thanksgiving game. Before the game Principal Frank L. Orth welcomed the Sharon team and the fans, and urged a continuance of cordial relations between the two schools. He was followed by Principal P. A. Jones, of the Sharon High School, who replied in kind to the words of Mr. Orth.

Then the massed band maneuvers Both Sharon and New Castle bands were massed and under the direction of the Sharon director and drum major marched down the field and back. Red and black mingled with orange and black with the white and cream of the directors standing out at the head.

Between halves New Castle's band went through some formations that spelled out welcome messages to Sharon. Both bands played and both got the hands they deserved.

As for the game itself it was one of those things that isn't over until the final whistle blows. Sharon threatened continuously throughout the second half, had the New Castle fans on the edge of their seats as that "spread formation piled up gains and as the closing whistle blew, not a fan but breathed a sigh of relief.

Good Order

The order throughout the game was good. No drunken brawls, no fights, no jeering. Both sides knew the worth of the opposition and were willing to let the youngsters fight the battle out on the gridiron. Despite the crowd, which was slightly larger than the crowd for the Martins Ferry game, there was no disorder throughout.

Sharon was defeated but only in the number of points scored. In sportsmanship, in gameness and in hard clean football, there was nothing to choose between the two teams.

Hundreds of fans were down from Sharon for the game. Following it many of them stopped in the Castleton Hotel for their Thanksgiving dinner where the Sharon team ate. Others visited friends in the city.

Thursday's game was the kind of a game that ends the season with a good taste. It is to be hoped that Sharon is on the schedule for many years to come.

New Castle High Cards Sharon For Basketball Game

Faculty Manager Ralph H Gardner today announced that New Castle basketball team would meet the Sharon High floor team at George Washington Junior High gym floor on the night of December 19.

The New Castle High basketeers will start to practice next week, now that the football season is over.

Reunion Held By Former Stars

It was a real home-coming day or reunion for many of the former New Castle high grid stars yesterday.

Seen at the game was Paul "Bulldog" Reider, former Pitt captain and New Castle high halfback.

Walter "Powerhouse" Kominic, now one of the Penn State backfield stars.

Mike DeCarbo, former New Castle high star lineman.

George Binder, former New Castle lineman and Grove City College star.

"Red" Bender, former New Castle high backfield star.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Stanford may invite the winner of the Southern Methodist-Texas Christian game, Saturday, as its Rose Bowl football opponent on New Year's day, according to reports from Stanford University. At least this was indicated when Graduate Manager A. R. Masters, of Stanford, said he would not make a decision until the week-end game had been played.

Bob Rankine, of Preston, Ont., ran home first yesterday in the Berwick, Pa., marathon for the third consecutive time and set a new record for the nine miles and 385 miles. His time was 47.35. Eino Pentti, Finn, who also beat the former course record, finished 200 feet behind. The old record was 47:56 2-5 set by Willie Ritola.

Erie boxing will be resumed tonight with Jack Barry as the promoter. Vic Wickets, of Pittsburgh will take on Jack Moran of Erie in the six round final bout....Jock McAvoy, British empire middleweight, and light-heavyweight champion, will take on Al McCoy, of Boston, in a 10 round bout tonight at Madison Square Garden, New York.

Paulino Hopes To Stop Louis

Paulino Says "Joe Louis Will Go To Hospital After Fight"

By HYPE IGOE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Joe Louis will be pleased to hear, no doubt, that he may not reach that dreamy, dear Havana on December 16 or thereabouts. A Spaniard may blight his young life in that respect. A Spaniard has deep designs on his career.

Senor Paulino Uzcudun, speaking of his foeman to me, remarked today that "Joe Louis will be in the hospital on December 16, right across the street from Madison Square Garden. Gastanaga never will see him. I will attend to that. No keed, no fighting upstart will whip this Spaniard," said the Basque, who is to meet Joe on December 13.

Paulino Is Tough

That's fight talk and, aimed at Joe Louis, it is more than mere fight gab. Joe will probably grin from ear to ear when he reads this.

Paulino is a tough old oak. None tougher. He has a hard job on his hands. The most difficult part of the task, to my way of thinking will be to keep that non-knockout record clean.

My notion of it is that Louis will not stop the Basque. Joe will have to hit hard and often and always down, because the Basque never comes up for air in a fight. He is a weaver for fair. He can cover and he can take it 'till the cows come home. He has been working hard and his condition is as nearly perfect as ever it has been.

Market Turns Irregular After Strong Opening Today

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The stock market turned irregular today after a strong opening. Concern over the newest Anglo-Italian crisis with its revived threat of a European war was an influence after being temporarily ignored.

Coppers and oils gage the strongest consistent showing. Rails opened at new highs in heavy dealings but sagged later. Steels were under pressure.

Allied Chemical rose over a point. Motor accessories and rubbers were lower.

Consolidated Oil hit a new high on the move in heavy dealings. Other oil shares worked higher.

Gains in the metals ran to a point and more. The leaders were American Smelting, Kennicott and U. S. Smelting. Utilities were quiet.

Aluminum Statues Not So New As Russian Claims

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH — Soviet Russia can't claim that it is putting up the first memorials of aluminum.

Experts here said that the Russian government, in announcing that the statue to Sergei Kirov, assassinated head of the Leningrad soviet, would be the first ever made of aluminum, were about 75 years behind the times.

Small statuettes of aluminum, alloyed with silver or copper, were made as early as 1859 in France, and the first exterior aluminum statue was that of Eros, by the late Sir Alfred Gilbert, which was placed on the top of the Shaftsbury memorial fountain in Piccadilly Circus London, in 1933.

A statuette of the Blessed Virgin was placed on one of the mountain peaks of the French Alps near Chamonix in 1904, and a similar statuette was placed on an adjacent pinacle in 1913, followed by still another statuette placed on a third peak in 1927.

Two huge sphinxes adorn the roof of the St. Louis civil court house, erected in 1929, and a gigantic statue of Ceres was placed on top of the Chicago Board of Trade building in 1930. The following year a statue of a lion was placed in the lobby of the Banco Vitalicio, Valencia, Spain. This statue is 13 ft high, 14 ft. long and weighs 1,980 pounds.

The navy and marine memorial in Washington, to be dedicated next Memorial Day, is aluminum.

Impressive Service Here Thanksgiving

Large Crowd Attends Union Service At Presbyterian Church Thursday Morn

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 29.—Despite the unfavorable morning a good congregation assembled for the annual Thanksgiving service which was held at nine o'clock in the morning in the First Presbyterian church.

The proclamation by the president was read as the call to worship.

A beautiful and inspiring feature of the service was a one act play, "The Spirit of Thanksgiving," written by John Oxenham, and presented by Mildred Hess, Mildred Cable, Harriett Johnston, Jean Aubrey, Catherine Shaner, Louise Scott, Bonnie Williams and Catherine Houk. The girls were dressed in white and lighted candles during the act, all of which added very much to the effectiveness of the scene.

The Rev. E. G. Aubrey proved a happy choice for the preacher of the morning. A point in his sermon which appealed to the young people was his alphabet of thanksgiving in which he listed under each letter things for which he felt inspired to give thanks to God. In the more serious vein of his preaching Mr. Aubrey developed the thought of looking into all the circumstances of life and finding out the abounding reasons for thanksgiving. He said that thinkful and thankful were very closely related as to the derivation of the words and also as to the nature of the experience suggested in the two words. He pointed out that difficult times are the very ones which lead people to the discovery of thankfulness. In easy experience it is hard to be thankful. Thankfulness is a part of greater living. Mr. Aubrey urged all to reach forward to this greater way of life.

A fitting anthem was well sung by the choir of the choir. Rev. H. P. Thomas, Rev. Bernie Osterhouse, Rev. W. E. Minteer, Rev. John A. King and Rev. A. M: Stevenson assisted in the service.

The offering, which will be given to the local hospital, amounted to $28.00.
